Second feature is Hi Neighbor, the uproarious Lulubelle and Scotty picture loaded with ballad harmonizing and entertainment. Jean Parker, lovely to behold, Vera Vague properly zany as the incurable romantic sister and Pappy Chesire in a strongly convincing role of the venerable college professor who is prepared to make any sacrifice so that his unique college "of and for the hillbillies" can be saved.

A technicolor drama with a desert setting, a story of violent passions, is the sensely realistic tale "Desert Fury" starring Lizabeth Scott and John Hodiak.

Lizabeth plays the strong-willed daughter who runs the little desert town of Chuckawalla with an iron hand. Defying her mother and peace officer, she runs after Hodiak, a gambler with an odious past who has been curiously drawn back to the scene of his wife's mysterious death in an auto accident. See the picture for its climatic finish.

Open Monday September 13

County School Superintendent L. C. Moffit was in the Valley Wednesday and stated that the county schools would have to be postponed a week, and would open Monday, September 13th.

Grants Pass School District No. could not open Tuesday, Sept. 7th, and the board postponed the opening until the 13th. The County School District is dependent, in a way, on the opening of the Grants Pass high school, and other coordinated school activities.

The Grants Pass delay was occasioned by the unfinished high school building which will be ready by the 13th.

The teaching staff for the Valley schools is practically completoffice Tuesday and requested that ed and we hope to have a complete list next week for the high school
