Although initial cost of preformed wire rope is somewhat higher, it is our experience from actual operation that it affords the biggest value.

State Fair In Salem Draws Near

Something to see, something to do for each member of the family is a longtime boast of Oregon's State Fair in Salem. The 1948 exposition, September 6 to 12, backs this claim more than ever. The 167 acres of fairgrounds, one of the finest physical fair plants in the nation, has been geared in every way to accommodate the throngs.

Lone Oak track will take over the spotlight each afternoon with the running of the yearly State Fair racing meet. There will be thrills plus each and every night of the fair in the horse show pavilion with the presentation of the championship rodeo-horse show. Featured will be the finest show horses of the Pacific Northwest plus outstanding rodeo riders from the major circuits.

Something more intangible is the state fair feeling itself. The midway, crowds, and the overall excitement along the eight block midway, combine to create a feeling difficult to pin down. But it's always there on the fairgrounds and once you visit Oregon's state fair, you'll never miss another one, knowing it's Oregon's biggest and best outdoor show.
