MOCK WEDDING WELL ATTENDED AT DEER CREEK GRANGE

Deer Creek Grange social night last week with 128 present witnessed the mock wedding put on by Lecturer Lee Carson.

Frank Amer, the bride, dressed in traditional white, was met at the altar by Mr. Henderson, who was so weak he had to be assisted by his best man, Mr. Brillhart. Mr. Seyfroth was the bride's father. Decorating the aisle was black crepe paper and vegetable candles. A duet was sung by Mrs. Cooper and Mr. Weiss. Acting Justice of Peace, A. M. Carson, dressed in night attire, interrogated the couple as to the fidelity of their vows and received a hilarious response from the audience.

A gift to the newlyweds was two sweet potatoes from Grange well wishers. Mrs. Ivan Burr of Selma, received a toy as her reward, after naming all present by their names.

Clarence McDaniels, photographer from Klamath Falls, took a number of pictures, which should be of interest to all.

Valleyites To Hear Discussions On Soil Conservation District

Cliff Jenkins, county extension agent, is making the announcement that Howard Cushman, sec. of the State Soil Conservation Service committee, and Bill Teutfeh, asst. director of the Extension Service, will meet at the Grange hall in Bridgeview, Tuesday, April 5, to discuss with business men and farmers, the purpose and advantages of setting up a soil conservation district. Further details will be published next week.

ROBERT C. BENNETT

Funeral services were held last Saturday for Robert C. Bennett.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh!

Remember How We Talked?

It went like this at the Hooper's the other night. Hap's eighteen-year-old daughter is talking about "a real gone guy—solid—out of this world, but def."

"Now what kind of language is that?" Hap barks. "Can't she speak English?"

"I'll translate it for you," Ma Hooper says, "in the language of the twenties, when you were about twenty years old. She simply means this fellow is the 'cat's whiskers.' Remember how we used to talk sometimes?" Hap went back to reading his newspaper.

From where I sit, it's easy to criticize the other person when we don't take a good long look at ourselves. Sure, there'll always be some differences. I'm fond of a temperate glass of beer and maybe you would prefer ginger ale—but let's just live and let live. Because when we go out of our way to find things to find fault with in others, chances are they can find a few in us, too.
