

U. S. Social Security
Uncle Sam's Children

Two plans for safeguarding the security of America's children are included in the U. S. Social Security Act, according to Paul F. Johnson, manager of the Eugene office of the Social Security Administration.

Both plans provide a regular income when other income is cut off, and both are planned to strengthen the family by making it easier for children to remain in their homes. However, they differ in the way they operate,

Johnson said.

One is an insurance plan under which a worker earns rights to insurance benefits for his family when he dies or retires after reaching age 65. The other is an assistance plan called Aid to Dependent Children, under which payments are made for children in need.

The former is handled by the federal government thru the old-age and survivors insurance field offices, and the latter by the various states through the county welfare departments.

O'Brien News Notes
By Ruby Thompson

Mrs. Ruby Thompson spent Tuesday in the Kerby schools telling Julia Williams' classes in Social Science about South America. She also addressed classes on world geography in Sara Wertz' room. She took the groups on a trip to Argentina by way of Brazil and Uruguay to Buenos Aires, returning via Andes to Chile, up the west coast through Panama canal to New York. Her aim was to make students feel that the places described were real, not just colored spots on maps and globe.

Friday the third grade went to Jacksonville to see historic points of interest. Peggy Love took the fourth grade on a sketching trip and an Easter egg hunt with little cake nests furnished by Mrs. Love, Sr. The first and second graders had an Easter party and egg hunt. Mrs. John Campbell furnished cup cakes and Mrs. Reeves donated the candy eggs.

Leo and Betty Alcessor of California were Easter guests with the Marshal Burrows family.

Julia Williams attended a Kappa Gama honorary teachers society in Medford last Saturday. Shirley O'Brien accompanied her aunt, joining other college girls in folk dances to entertain the gathering.

The Scout leaders gave another pinochle party Saturday night for the purpose of getting parents together and stimulate interest in Cub Scout activities.

Visitors at the Lackey home were the father and mother-in-law of Blanche Lackey and her nephew and family.

Parents and four sister of Buddy Maddox spent Easter vacation at Lone Mt. Valley.

Mae Hearing spent Easter in Medford and while there attended the Smiley Burnette show which she enjoyed very much.

How We Licked
The Parking Problem

For a while it looked like we'd have to put up parking meters. Folks working in town—including some of the store owners—were taking up all of the space along Main Street.

Farmers coming in to shop never found a place to park, and sometimes had to lug stuff a half mile or so. Some started to do their buying in other towns. Finally, store owners and farmers had a get-together—with the result that the empty field near the depot was fixed up for all-day parkers.

done comfortably, and the merchants have a better place to park than they had before. Just took a little friendly co-operation to make everybody happy.

From where I sit, most differences can be ironed out by just talking things over—maybe with a cup of coffee or glass of beer—and seeing the other person's side of it. Next time you have a problem or a little difference to settle, why not try just that?
