THE FOURTH OF JULY

This is the day we Americans go all out celebrating our independence. This is the day that we will never forget, so let's remember that on this day we CELEBRATE. But, let's do it in an orderly, good natured manner, and let's don't get out of control in our endeavor to show our patriotism.

In bringing up Young America, we try to teach a lesson—The Fourth of July brought us our independence, and then came the Constitution of the United States, then came the Bill of Rights, which every American will fight to preserve. Teaching the youngsters these fundamentals is what preserves our nation year after year, for the youngsters of today are the leaders of tomorrow, and they must have instilled in their hearts and mind all the hardships their forefathers went through to give them what they have today.

So, let's celebrate with the VFW and the Rough and Ready Ramblers in their big celebration in Cave Junction this year. Of course, it's expected that we might fall off the water wagon, just a little, but we don't have to fall so hard that we are obnoxious to others—just slip a little.

We might add that we are still teaching youngsters what the day is supposed to represent, and we don't want to set a bad example for them to follow later. Our youngsters are all broad minded and they won't mind a little-we-bit off the record, but we can still be patriotic and still keep within the bounds of good judgment.

Here's to you all for a great Fourth. Let's enjoy it, be merry and be safe, and go home at night and go to sleep thanking God for giving us the greatest country in the world, and bringing us home all in one piece. Cheerio!

There are two loves from which all good and truth come: love to the Lord and love to the neighbor. And there are two loves from which all evils and falsities come: the love of self and the love of the world. —Swedenborg.

The Spirit of '76 was an aspiration. Today it is an accomplishment. How vital are the freedoms which we sought and won is best appreciated by those who have come from other lands to share them.

HAVE YOU RECORDED YOUR DISCHARGE?

A spot check of county court houses by the Oregon Department of Veterans' Affairs this week revealed that an alarming number of war veterans have neglected to record their military discharges as a safeguard in the event of loss of their original papers.

"State law provides that the counties will make this a free service. Every veteran should take advantage of it, because in the event of loss of his original papers because of fire, theft, mutilation or misplacement, he can always obtain a photostatic copy from his county clerk or recorder for a small fee."

County and veterans' organization service officers have seen too many instances where a veteran or his next of kin has suffered costly delays in securing compensation, pensions, subsistence and other veterans' benefits due to the fact that the discharge was not recorded and the original papers were missing."

Playground Color Scheme

A playground color scheme for children's playground equipment, which has been put into practice in Canada, is green and yellow. The explanation for this choice of color is that green is restful to children's eyes while the orange-yellow provides a quick vision contrast which indicates danger points. For this purpose, the advocates of this painting motif emphasize that yellow is the most highly visible of all colors.
