THE AMERICAN WAY

The Real Solution

State Tax Commission To Reappraise Businesses In Grants Pass

All business buildings as well as lots in Grants Pass are to be reappraised by the Oregon State Tax commission, which has assigned Earle E. Giffin, appraisal engineer, to the task. This assistance from the tax commission has been requested by County Assessor Merle E. Griffin, and the cost to the taxpayers of Josephine county will be the board and lodging for the engineer for a couple of months; Giffin's salary and his transportation to and from Salem headquarters is paid by the commission.

The tremendous boom experienced by Grants Pass has made obsolete the former appraisals and a new study is imperative in keeping with new conditions.

Engineer Giffin, who will be assisted by James Dey, also a member of the staff of the state tax commission, will not make appraisal of dwellings but will confine his studies to business property while the county assessor will attend to the private dwellings.

Preliminary to the actual appraisal, Engineer Giffin will first study the records and start from there.

Jaguar's Markings Black "rosettes" on a jaguar's hide usually have a black spot in the middle of the circle, while those of the leopard do not.

Pressure Cooker Avoid stale odors in the pressure cooker and other cooking utensils by leaving covers slightly open when the utensil is not in use.
