Versatile Chick Crows, Lays An Egg Every Other Day

LINCOLN, NEB.—Mrs. F. A. Gilliam has a versatile chick she says crows at the rising sun and lays eggs every other day.

"It," she said, "began its productive life complete with cock's comb and egg laying ability."

The eight-month-old fowl is a mixture of Rhode Island Red and Buff Orpington, she said. It is one of a dozen birds the Gilliams own.

Rattler Uninvited Guest At Bridge-Club Meeting

MCGREW, NEB.—Mrs. Ward Wise's bridge-club meeting ended in a "rattling" good time when two of the guests made a grand slam with clubs and a spade—but not of the card variety.

Mrs. Benny Roberts and Mrs. V. E. Gatch scored the grand slam against a rattlesnake that slithered across the front yard as they were leaving. They used spade and clubs to do the job.
