CAVE JUNCTION COMMUNITY CHURCH

George H. Gray, Pastor
Sunday School at 10 a. m.
Morning Worship at 11 a. m.

We started the New Year with an attendance of 117 which we hope to double by next Sunday; if each one will bring one with him it can be accomplished. The moving picture "The Rich Young Ruler" was enjoyed by many who came to the evening services on Sunday night. Birthdays were observed for Lee Dilliard, Della Bell, Lee Carson, Gladys Chamberlain, Kenny Beauvais, and a special one for the mother of Mr. John Dow. Mrs. Dow, who recently celebrated her 101st birthday, was pictured last month in "LOOK" magazine.

Communion was held at the morning service as it is the first Sunday of each quarter. Rev. Gray used for his subject "Going forward with Christ", taking Philippians 3:13,14 for his text. The junior choir sang "Walking in the King's Highway" for their special.

Visitors at church were Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Hilliard of Q Bar X ranch, Kerby; Grant Carothers, Cave Junction; Mrs. A. B. Iverson and daughter Grace, of Medford; and Warren Birkner of Cave Junction.

On Tuesday evening, an annual business meeting is held at the church. This is also the regular monthly business meeting.

Kerby circle met at the church on Wednesday afternoon with Evon Carothers and Mary Bulla as hostesses.

The monthly "singspiration" will be conducted in the church at Wonder on Sunday afternoon, January 8, beginning at 2:30.

The Town circle will meet at the church on Thursday, January 12.

There's a new deodorant out for use in garbage receptacles—is your garbage can only half safe?

COAST MOTORIST SUSTAINS INJURIES ON HAYES HILL

William F. Warmoth of Brookings received face, body and leg injuries in an accident on Hayes Hill Thursday, December 29. His brand new GMC pickup was badly damaged when he went over the bank on the first big turn going down hill.

He blamed a slick spot on the road as the cause of the accident; his vehicle went out of control and left the road before he could recover.

Valley citizens have noted that highway crews have been kept busy distributing sand on Hayes Hill these frosty mornings and during and after our recent snows, but it is regrettable that we cannot eliminate this hazardous stretch of highway completely.

It only takes a little thing to break up a marriage—a cute little red-head, for instance.

taining and preserving happiness, and urged an extension of the lodge program of child welfare and community service.

GIRL SCOUT ACTIVITIES

Girl Scout Troop No. 92 was very busy over the Christmas week-end. On Friday, after school, a group with their leaders, Maybelle Duncan and Agnes Seranton, went to Grants Pass to sing Christmas carols for the patients at Park View Rest Home. They were very well received.

Each patient was presented with a calendar for 1950. These were made by the girls as a part of the arts and crafts work. They also presented the Home with a 1950 Girl Scout calendar for use in the office.

Mrs. Maddoc, matron of the Home, thanked the girls and their leaders warmly, and asked them to come back again.

On Christmas eve, they presented the James Boys Home with a giant candy cane and a Christmas tree gaily decorated with Christmas cards made by the girls.

WHERE are those pie tins? Please return them to Badden's Bakery. 37-12c
