WEEK'S NEWS

BIG TUNA—The largest Allison Tuna ever caught on rod and reel off Atlantic seaboard was boated recently at Ft. Lauderdale, Fla., by A. J. Krabbe of Lafayette, Ind. It weighed 180 pounds and measured six feet.

INDICTED IN OWN COURT—Circuit Judge N. K. Harris, Sullivan, Ind., sits at bench where he received a true bill indicting him on charges of forgery, embezzlement and issuing fraudulent checks. He denies all charges.

CENTENNIAL—Alec Waugh, author of "The Lipton Story," a biography of the beloved Sir Thomas, which Doubleday & Company is publishing on the hundredth anniversary of his birth in 1850.

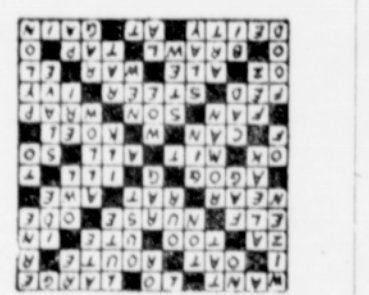

FOR INFORMAL WEAR—Anne Baxter favors this silk net, worn over taffeta. A net hat and marquisette gloves add a touch of sheer elegance. Anne appears in 20th Century Fox's picture, "A Ticket to Tomahawk."

HOW DOES IT FEEL to be robbed of $1,500,000? No one knows better than Thomas B. Lloyd, Boston cashier. Dan Seymour, left, "We, the People" host (NBC and NBC-TV Fridays), gets the inside story from Lloyd for his Gulf Oil audience of how masked bandits made him the victim of the biggest cash robbery of all time.

 The IVHS Cougars were defeated in a hard fought game with the Sutherland Bulldogs Friday, February 10, at the local gym in Cave Junction.

During the first quarter both teams tried hard for the lead but Sutherland was ahead at the end by a score of 14-8.

The second quarter progressed slowly with the Bulldogs making most of the points, ending the half with a score of 24-13, with the Bulldogs still leading.

After the half the teams came back on the floor with determination in their eyes. The Bulldogs continued to hold the lead. When the third quarter ended the score was 39-21, in favor of Sutherland.

During the fourth quarter the Cougars held the Bulldogs down but still they were able to maintain their advantage. When the whistle sounded ending the game the Bulldogs led by a score of 47-31.

The Ashland High Grizzlies won their fourth conference game by drubbing IVHS 41 to 31 in a rugged game Saturday nite.

Ashland led all the way except in the opening minutes, when IVHS came from behind a 6-0 deficit to take an 8 to 7 lead midway in the first quarter.

The Grizzlies came back strong and with Landing and Smith of Ashland putting in baskets from every angle, were able to rack up a half-time score of 25 to 15.

The third period was similar to the second quarter with the Grizzlies making eleven points while they were holding the Cougars to five.

The fourth quarter proved to be very exciting with the Cougars gaining 10 points in the closing minutes of the game. However the Grizzlies had built up too much
