IVHS Seniors To Try For Scholarship

Several seniors from Illinois Valley High school plan to enter an essay competition for a $500 college scholarship, sponsored by Oregon Mutual Savings Bank, Principal Clarence Hagen announced.

“Why mutual savings banks are called ‘banks of the people,’” is the subject for the essays, which may be from 700 to 1,000 words in length. In addition to the $500 scholarship, two alternate awards of $25 each will be made. The scholarship can be used at any accredited college or university in Oregon. Closing date for the competition is April 15. Awards will be announced on or before May 15. Judges for the essay competition will be: Judge James W.

Crawford, Multnomah County Circuit court; Elwain H. Greenwood, secretary, Oregon State Bankers' association; and Dr. Richard D. Millican, professor of advertising, university of Oregon. Commercial job printing at the News.
