CAVE JUNCTION COMMUNITY CHURCH

George H. Gray, Pastor
Sunday School at 10 a. m.
Morning Worship at 11 a. m.

Attendance at Sunday school was 122. Birthdays were observed for Mrs. Mary B. Seeger, Larry Preston and Gary Bell. The early-comers were presented with sweet pea corsages by Mr. and Mrs. Mills.

Rev. Gray took for his theme, "The Secret Place of the Most High," based on Psalms 91:1. Mrs. John Dow sang as a solo, "The Mercies of God." The epidemic of flu, mumps, measles, etc., has had its effect on the attendance of some of the most faithful ones.

On Wednesday, at the home of Mrs. Evon Carothers, a delightful luncheon was held, sponsored by the ladies of the Kerby circle.

Today, Thursday, a group of ladies are meeting all day at the church for a general housecleaning, washing of windows, woodwork, etc., with a sack lunch at noon. Much credit is due Mrs. Howard Hendrickson, whose devotion to the care of the rooms at the church is much appreciated by her many friends.

Last week on Wednesday the regular meeting of the Missionary group was held with the Town circle in charge of the noon hour. A number of visitors were present, including Mrs. Robert Rousche with her mother, Mrs. Swaney, and Mrs. Wachter, a friend, from North Hollywood; Miss Stevenson of Montana; Mrs. Chloe Butler of Ashland, Mrs. JessieVoelker and Mrs. Sandlin of the Caves Appliance Shop. Mrs. Rousche is a new member. A generous contribution was made towards the building of the new rest rooms for the church.

The "Singspiration" held on Sunday afternoon at the Gospel Tabernacle brought out a large attendance, with special numbers from the various groups of the Valley. Two numbers were given by the Wantland Junior quartette and a group of girls from Mrs. Gertrude Martin's Sunday school class of the Community church also sang. The musical numbers by Rev. and Mrs. Raymond Cox on piano and accordion were much enjoyed.

Beginning next Sunday the route of the Sunday school bus will be changed. All those who are interested in attending who reside between the state line and the Tabernacle on highway 199 are welcome to ride the bus. The bus will leave the state line at approximately 9:15 a.m. There are classes for all ages and a nardial invitation is extended to those who have no church home to take advantage of this transportation opportunity and study the Word of God with us.

Since the announcement was made of the affiliation of the Tabernacle with the Foursquare organization, many people in the Valley have been inquiring: "What is the Foursquare Gospel?" In the Sunday morning worship service at 11:00 a.m., the pastor will endeavor to answer that question and demonstrate the identity of the Foursquare message with the "Old-Time Religio'n" as it is unfolded in the Bible and especially in the preaching of the Apostles.

The Sunday evening audiences at the Tabernacle have been thrilled with the splendid Hawaiian guitar renditions of Mr. Owens, a recent addition to the Tabernacle's instrumentalists. An interesting and inspirational musical program is planned for this week's evangelistic service. The pastor will speak on the topic: "The Worst Sinner You Know!"

Saturday, May 27, there will be no services at the local church but the church group from Cave Junction will present a musical sermon for the 11 o'clock service at the Williams, Oregon, S.D.A. church. The musical sermon is entitled "Our Heavenly Home" and is presented by using solo, duet, trio, quartette and chorus numbers all on the theme—with various scriptures on the subject.

Tuesday, May 16, the Dorcas ladies met at the home of Mrs. Myo Elliott. Clothing for the needy was mended and mended. A pot luck lunch was served at noon. In the afternoon two local families were visited by two ladies of the group and reports made as to their needs. We were glad to have on hand the things that were needed.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH SERVICES

Christian Science church services are held every Sunday morning at 11:00 a.m., in the new edifice, corner of Palmer and Kerby avenues, Cave Junction.

Sunday school at 9:30 a.m.
Wednesday evening testimonial meeting at 8:00 p.m. A cordial invitation is extended to all to attend.

"Soul and Body" was the subject of the lesson-sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist on Sunday, May 21.

The Golden text was "My soul, wait thou only upon God; for my expectation is from him" (Ps. 62:5).

Among the citations which comprised the lesson-sermon was the following from the Bible: "And fear not them which kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul: but rather fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell" (Matt. 10:28), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Fear him which is able to destroy both soul and body in hell," said Jesus. A careful study of this text shows that here the word soul means a false sense or material consciousness. The command was a warning to beware not of Rome, Satan, nor of God, but of sin" (p. 196).

8th Graders Entertain

Social experiences new to many eighth grade class members were enacted last Wednesday when they were hosts and hostesses for the Mother's Day party at the Kerby school.

The room was attractively decorated with flowers arranged by the committee in charge, Beverly Tabor and Joanne Smith co-chairmen. In charge of refreshments were Roberta England, Shella Freel and Louise Watson. The invitations were written and distributed by Treva Lee Allen, Mrs. Bowerman, Beverly Tabor, Joan Yandell and Louise Watson.

Assisting the refreshment committee at the tables were Mrs. Margaret Crowl and Mrs. Teresa Marchant. Tea cakes, punch, coffee and tea were served.

Opening numbers on the program were two songs by the eighth grade girls, "Mother" and "Oregon, My Oregon." A demonstration entitled "Look Your Best" followed, handled by Noreen Deaton, Louise Watson, Alice Blanchard, Jeanne Chappell and Ila Slack. Announcer was Bertha Merrill.

The style show, announced by Mrs. Sara H. Wertz, was presented by all the eighth grade girls in the homemaking class: Theoda Beck, Moonyeen Deaton, Joann Huffman, Marie Johnson, Mary Lockhart, Shirley Parker, Bertha Merrill, Jessie Stout, Donna Whitman, Bonita Crowl, Arlene Pickle, Freda Stepp, Ethel Sullivan, Diana and Sally Tucker, Joan Yandell, Ila Slack and Noreen Deaton.

Jeanne Chappell and June Owen demonstrated Chinese and Mexican costumes. Special feature of the afternoon was a 52-year-old "Sunday Best" black silk dress owned by Catherine Thornton Gray and modeled by Stella Freel. Catherine Gray was a former Kerby grade school pupil, now a resident of Grants Pass.

Beverly Tabor modeled a chemise and appropriate accessories of a yesteryear costume. Treva Allen also wore an old-fashioned bathing suit.

"Stealing the show," however, were the eighth grade boys who presented a clever style revue. Charles Marchant was the announcer and "Parisian" hats were modeled by David King and Henry Krauss. The inspirations for their creations came from the kitchen utensils in the home economics rooms. "Evening gowns" were shown by Dick Masters, Gary Tyer, James Yandell and Jack Behm. Sportswear models were Arnold Mellow, Orin Wallace, Raymond Stout, Bob Kester, Forrest Rosenberry and Ronnie Terrell.

The boys concluded their show by presenting a cake made by Lee Johann and Larry Farmer "directed" by Richard Durvall on the "radio."

Clean-up committee in charge were Jack Behm, Wayne Howard, Charles Marlhant, Bob Vaughn and Herb Chamberlain. The group also assisted in making the tea cakes for the 150 guests.
