LOCALS

Alfred and Mary Burton are enjoying a new car.

Jack Heald, son of J. T. Heald, has taken up residence in the Valley and will take care of the place while his father is undergoing treatment at a hospital in San Francisco. Jack has been working at Storm Lake, Idaho, where he was staff announcer at radio station KAYL.

Mr. and Mrs. M. Feuer of Gold Beach spent the weekend at Fredericks Motel, with Dr. and Mrs. Snyder. Mrs. Feuer is Mrs. Snyder's sister.

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Baker of Berkeley, Calif., were out this way visiting the John Dows of Cave Junction. Mr. Baker is president of No. 21, ITU, in San Francisco.

Mrs. W. A. Brown and Mrs. V. McDaniel made a trip to Crescent City today (Thursday) and were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Burgess there.

Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Johnson and guests of Atherton, Calif., spent the weekend at their ranch, the Q — X at Kerby.

Word comes that Mrs. Watkins and Mrs. Thompson have reached their destinations in Oklahoma and had a pleasant plane trip.

Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Stem and daughter Karen left Monday evening for Coquille. They visited with their parents and many friends. They returned to Cave Junction Tuesday evening.

Phillip Griffin, son of County Assessor Merle Griffin and grandson of Rev. and Mrs. Gray, had a signal honor bestowed upon him as an outstanding student in science at the Grants Pass high school, and as a result is to receive a four year scholarship at the University of Chicago.

Mrs. W. O. Burch drove up to Springfield on Wednesday to bring her mother, Mrs. Peters, back home after several weeks of delightful visiting with her friends up there.

Dr. and Mrs. Snyder observed their wedding anniversary on Tuesday at Fredericks Motel.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Drews spent the afternoon and evening on Tuesday out with the "Willadora" friends.

Hugh Foster of Foster Court is expecting the arrival of Mrs. Foster and her mother, Mrs. Lleyelyn from Los Angeles in a few days to spend the summer months here.

SELMA NEWS ITEMS

(Mrs. Fritz Krauss)

A series of "parties" has been held around Selma recently. The first, a "cosmetic party", given by a brush representative, was held at the home of Mrs. Ernest Krauss. Mrs. Don King was hostess for a foundation and lingerie party given by Mrs. Enid Burch and a lady from Medford demonstrating a line of lingerie. Tuesday afternoon Mrs. Dick Trautfether was hostess for a plastic party.

Mr. and Mrs. Milton Ericson have moved to southern California, where Mr. Ericson will attend school.

George Blue is clerking at the Selma Store in the place of Milt Ericson.

The Musical Places held a Youth for Christ rally at the Selma Church Thursday evening. They play the marimba, xylophone, bells and many other instruments.

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Cooper and daughter have moved to the Schmitt ranch, and the Roland family from southern California has moved into the Cooper house.

Darlene Copper has gone to Fullerton, California. She is staying with her aunt and will work out until school starts, then she will attend college.

Mr. and Mrs. James Culbertson are helping Mr. and Mrs. Bob Northup in the Selma Cafe. Mrs. Culbertson and Mrs. Northup are sisters, the former Ethel and Elsie Hudson.

Mrs. Ivan Burr, Mrs. Leonard Hanson, Mrs. Pete Blue and Mrs. Lewis Hammer spent several days in Portland last week, visiting and shopping.

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Hatmaker and children have moved to Brookings, where Mr. Hatmaker will assist his brother-in-law Dick Tucker in running his sawmill.

Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Marrs attended the Shrine ceremonies at Hillah Temple in Ashland last Saturday. Mr. Marrs joined the group of Nobles from Reno, Nevada, where he holds membership.

Mrs. Goldie Sowell and Gladys Chamberlin spent last Sunday in Brookings, attending the Azalea festival and barbecue.
