the floor on the ground that this purpose of the meeting had not been advertised, and had it been so advertised, a much larger attendance would have resulted.

The majority of the assembly desired to proceed with selection of their representatives, and they retired to their several caucuses.

It was announced by the groups that Bill Raines had been chosen as the Cave Junction representative, Mrs. Thelma Blue from Selma, and George Mulvey from Holland. There were not enough people present from Kerby, Takilma, Central and O'Brien to select a committee member, and it was announced that these areas would select their representatives later.
