LOCALS

Mr. and Mrs. John Jedrrholm and baby son, of Seattle, were weekend guests at "Willadora." Mrs. Jedrrholm and her family were friends of the Browns while in Buenos Aires.

Mrs. Jean Smallwood, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Wallace of Kerby has returned to her home in Mena, Arkansas. She was here to attend the funeral of her brother, Ray Wallace.

Mr. and Mrs. Dryen of Wilmington, California, were in the Valley visiting with Mrs. Goldie Sowell and friends. Mrs. Dryen is the former Louise Cotton.

Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Prairie are leaving this Saturday for Eugene where they will see their son Lawrence graduate from the University of Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. Lowell of Grants Pass, who formerly owned the Day's End Court, were in town for a visit Sunday.

W. O. Burch had the misfortune on Saturday to be struck in the eye with a loose bolt, which broke his glasses and cut him badly.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rauber will leave Saturday for San Francisco, California. Son Donald is graduating from Saint Mary's College. Donald plans to teach at Eugene this fall.

Mrs. Esther Elston and son Bob went to Arcadia last weekend where they attended the funeral of Henry J. Lammers, the brother-in-law of Mrs. Elston's daughter. Mr. Lammers was formerly a logger in Cave Junction.

Edmund Burton is home for the summer from attendance at the Portland Bible school and brought with him two college friends, Raymond Mendenhall and Miss Marthe Ganz.

Mr. and Mrs. H. Crowl entertained Mr. and Mrs. Wm. Small, Tuesday evening. They celebrated the Wm Small's 14th wedding anniversary.

Mrs. Lillie Peters returned Friday from a visit with friends in Springfield.

Mr. Leonard Beard and daughter Mildred have gone to southern California for a visit with relatives and friends.

James Reed of Grants Pass was a Sunday visitor in the Valley.

The children of the Wilson Welch family are having a seige with pink eye.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Lux and son David left Cave Junction last week after an enjoyable visit with Mrs. Lux's parents, the Howard Davises. Mrs. Davis reported that they had enjoyed the fishing and sight-seeing hereabouts, while she and Howard caught up on their "grand-parenting."

Mrs. Evah Smid is visiting her brother and family, the Walter Chapmans' on the Dick George Road.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kamberg of Medford were visiting in the Valley last Saturday. They were guests of the Howard Dunlaps.

Staff Sgt. Delbert Campbell, son of the C. O. Wallace's of Kerby has been transferred from Everett, Washington to St. Louis, Missouri, where he will attend Radio School. He was here over Mother's Day.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Martin have been having as guests Mr. Martin's parents from Sutherlin,

Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Martin; also Mrs. Martin's mother, Mrs. Mary Lyon of Grants Pass who was out to see her grandson graduate; and Mrs. Martin's sister and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Loppe of Tacoma.

Her many friends were overjoyed at the news that Mrs. Frank Hamilton would arrive home on Monday last after her visit with friends and relatives in southern California for the past few weeks. Cave Junction doesn't seem quite right when Dot is away.

O'BRIEN NEWS

(By Mrs. Blanche Lackey)

Mr. and Mrs. Oliver Boyd and Lois Brink spent last weekend at Brookings.

Bobbie Burrows has been ill the past few days.

Mrs. Norma Burrows recovered from her illness in time to attend the last week of school duties.

Mrs. Karl Preston and daughter Karen motored to Medford Tuesday with Mrs. Clifton Lackey on business.

George Cardinal is improving.

Wanda Lugh and Beatrice Brown took in the Rodeo in Grants Pass.

Also attending was Julia and Arthur Williams.

Mr. J. D. Owens and Mrs. Arthur Bennet left for Ontario, Oregon, on business.

Mr. and Mrs. Ted Stowe and family are moving to Eastern Oregon, having hold their home.

Mrs. Eleanor Hanson is leaving for Vallejo, California to visit her mother, Mrs. Amelia Majors.

Last Friday Mrs. Ida Wing of Grants Pass asked for help to find Fred Alhberg who went to his mine above the Doran Ranch and did not come out on time.

Scout Master Meryle Preston took Doss McIntire, Frank Jones and Stanley Campbell of Scout Troop 70 and went to the mine, but Mr. Alhberg came out another road. He and Ida Wing thanked the troop for trying and this should give parents the idea of Scout training. So please parents help your children to take part in Scout work.
