SHOW REVUE

SATURDAY

Most folks know the story of Jesse James, so "I Shot Jesse James" with its interpretation of the historical event should be of wide interest. You will find it good dramatic entertainment, with plenty of action and a love story that will hold your interest. In the cast we find Preston Foster, Barbara Britton and John Ireland supported by many ranking stars.

SUNDAY and MONDAY

The historical background of Republic's "The Fighting Kentuckian," starring John Wayne, Vera Ralston, Philip Dorn and Oliver Hardy, proves that even over a century ago the American pioneers were international-minded! After Napoleon's defeat at Waterloo, his officers and their families, exile from France turned to America. They settled and named the town Demolis which they have turned into a thriving, bustling community.

John Wayne woos the General's lovely daughter, who has been promised to wealthy and powerful Blake Randolph. There is a pitched battle between the brave but sorely inadequate French forces and the rivermen killers. That's all I'm going to tell you . . . to find out how it all turns out, come to the Ivy Sunday or Monday.

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

Three stars, Virginia Mayo, Zachary Scott and Dorothy Malone top the cast of Warner Bros. swiftly-paced melodrama, "Flaxy Martin." From a story by David Lang, the drama reveals the operations of a shady gambling syndicate and it's grip on the lives of three individuals. Miss Mayo is cast as a cunning, unscrupulous show girl, named Flaxy Martin, who stops at little to attain her goal. Zachary Scott is a young lawyer who becomes involved in murder and gunplay. Miss Malone, plays the sympathetic part of Scott's sweetheart.

THURSDAY and FRIDAY

One of the great American stories of our day unfolds on the screen when the Samuel Goldwyn production of "The Pride of the Yankees" returns as a timely attraction.

The brilliant cast, headed by Gary Cooper in the role of the late star first baseman of the New York Yankees, features in main support Teresa Wright, as Eleanor Twitchell who became Mrs. Gehrig; Walter Brennan, playing a sports writer friend and sponsor of Gehrig; and the late Babe Ruth, seen playing his own uninhibited self. The production, based upon Paul Gallico's story and directed by Sam Wood, offers other baseball personalities, besides talented Hollywood players in character roles.

TO THE PEOPLE OF
THE ILLINOIS VALLEY

On Monday, June 19, school election day—if you feel that I am qualified for the position, I would appreciate your vote to fill the vacancy on the local school board committee.

I have eleven years teaching experience, ten years of which I was principal of a high school or superintendent of the school system.

I have five years of college work — all of which is in the educational field.

I have no interest in any faction or in the personal feuds between teachers, except, when they bring them into the school room and affect the morale of our boys and girls.

My sole interest in the school is the welfare of the boys and girls. I have six children in school.

If I am elected, I will work to the end that I would like to see the efficiency of our grade school brought up to the level of the average school over the entire State of Oregon.

According to our State Department of Education our grade school, in quality of work, is from a year and a half to two years below the average school over the state. This, I believe you will agree with me, is a very deplorable condition.

There are many things in the school that could be and should be accomplished—and there is no excuse for them not being done — that I could tell you about if I could talk to you person to person—but lack of space in the paper prevents it.
Thanks to all for any support that you give me.

Our Apologies to the People of
The Illinois Valley

We didn't think we could do it— but with a few more 18 hour days and some extra effort, we were able to open our new shop building last Saturday, weeks ahead of schedule. And it happened so fast we didn't have time to invite the Valley to our Grand Opening.

So we're going to do it all over again for the folks of the Valley THIS Saturday. — we'll be open all day Saturday, and the sales and service force will be here to show you around.

Maybe the word leaked out, though, because the Pete Blues of Selma came in and picked out their new DODGE. We have DODGES and PLYMOUTHs on display again, and more of those rugged DODGE TRUCKS are arriving every day.

We would like to express our appreciation to the people of the Valley for their loyal support; it won't be necessary to call in for reservations anymore — with two hydraulic hoists, "Walt" Wiltermouth and his new assistant can handle lube jobs almost as fast as they can drive in. And there's plenty of room to "drive in and drive out;" no hazardous backing out into traffic.

The Parts Department has been moved into the show room, and the Service Department, with an augmented force, now has the room and facilities to triple its previous work capacity.

This is our twentieth year of service with DODGES and PLYMOUTHs, and we have enjoyed every day of it (even if som of them were a little long!). We couldn't hav don it without your hlp, but we like ti think the quality of our serice and our cars and trucks has contributed too. Come in and see us soon, won't you?

Sincerely,

MR. and MRS. TYRELL CARNER
