To Hold Cooked Food Sale

The ladies of the Community Church missionary group have announced that they will hold a cooked food sale on Saturday at the Illinois Valley Cleaners. They will offer cakes, pies, salads and cookies.

Locals

Jim and Dree Akins were week-end visitors in Burns, Oregon. They visited Mrs. Akins' parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cawker.

The Chuck Johnsons are making their home in Applegate, near Grants Pass.

Isabel Small was hostess to the outgoing officers of the B.P.W. Card games and refreshments were enjoyed during the evening.

Lew Krauss went fishing yesterday. Score? —suppressed by censor.

Gilbert Cozad from Los Angeles is here visiting his son John Cozad and family.

Mrs. Swaney, mother of Mrs. Robert Rausch is here from Los Angeles, for a visit with the son's family. Mildred Beard left on Sunday for Shady Grove, where she is to teach in a daily vacation bible school.

Edmund Burton has been laid up several days with a nasal infection.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hamilton left Saturday for a visit with their daughter and son-in-law, the Eston Loughs of Toledo, Oregon.

Word has come of the arrival of a daughter, Scharl Madeline, born June 13 to Mr. and Mrs. Byron Gray of Umatilla. The announcement came as quite a surprise to the grandparents, Rev. and Mrs. George Gray.

Dr. and Mrs. Custer of Klamath Falls, together with Mrs. Ella Wagstaff of Grants Pass were in town Sunday for church services.

Wilson Welsh and family and Rev. Wantland went to Diamond lake Tuesday on a fishing trip.

Rev. and Mrs. F. W. Hopkins of Sunny Valley were guests of Rev. and Mrs. Gray on Wednesday. In the evening, Rev. Hopkins spoke at the Community Church.

The death of E. G. Shoulders of Azalea was announced last week, and the funeral was held on Saturday. Mr. and Mrs. Shoulders formerly lived in the Iversen home on the Bridgeview road.

Mrs. Bert Watkins returned last Wednesday a week from Enid, Oklahoma, where she had spent a month visiting her sister, Mrs. T. W. Dunworth. She travelled by air.

Mike Doney is driving a new

Chevrolet sedan. He and his wife and Mr. and Mrs. Talcott were visiting the Bud Doney's at their new home on the Redwood highway beyond Wonder.

Walter Doney and family will leave Saturday for a two week's visit with Mrs. Doney's parents, the Bert St. Johns in Idaho.

C. A. Baird and family have moved to Crescent City where Mr. Baird and son have bought a saw mill.

Nina Jones (Block) was awarded a divorce decree Friday, June 17, from Paul Block, in the Circuit Court for Josephine county.

A birthday picnic was held Wednesday at Grayback campgrounds in honor of Mesdames W. A. Brown, Bert Watkins and Ivon Carothers, all of whom celebrate their natal day within a week's time. A lovely day was enjoyed. Other guests were Mesdames Burch, Peters, Thebo, McDaniel, Miller, Sowell, Snyder, Gray, Burton and the honorees.

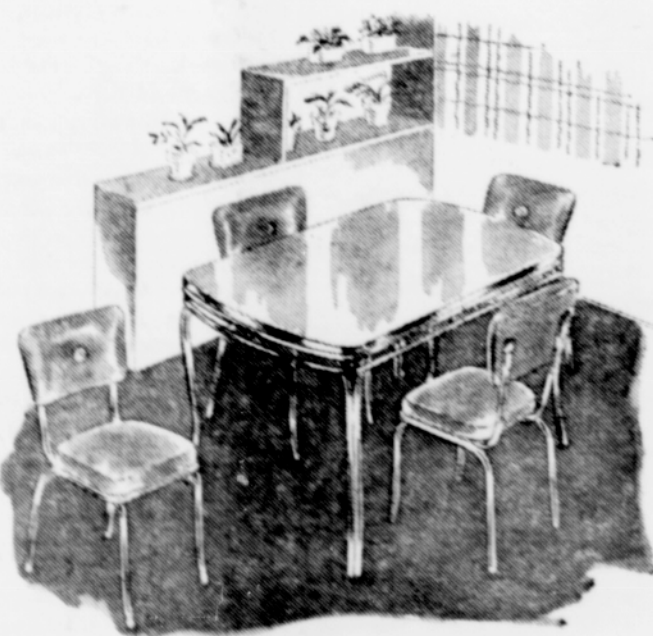

Leonard Beard and Mildred returned from their trip north, and with them came Mrs. Collins, mother of Rev. Collins of Central Point, for a visit with the son's family. Mildred Beard left on Sunday for Shady Grove, where she is to teach in a daily vacation bible school.

B. P. W. Radio Program

There will be a coast-to-coast broadcast from San Francisco sponsored by the National Federation of Business and Professional Women's clubs in cooperation with the National Broadcasting company on Wednesday night, July 5, at 8:30 PST.

Rosalind Russell, Hollywood star, will play the lead role in a half-hour documentary program paying tribute to women's progress in the last half century.

Dr. K. Frances Scott, president of the National Federation, will be heard at the conclusion of the drama, direct from Civic Auditorium in San Francisco. Members attending the convention will see Dr. Scott present Miss Russell with an award for outstanding achievement in the field of motion pictures.
