CAVE JUNCTION COMMUNITY CHURCH

George H. Gray, Pastor
 Sunday School at 10 a. m.
 Morning Worship at 11 a. m.
 Attendance wasn't up to normal owing to many being ill or vacationing. Birthday was observed for Michael Severance. Among those absent were the Cross family, still away from home, the Harms family, Patsy Rowe being quite ill with a bad throat, and Mrs. McDaniel, but the Burtons were home, also Ed and his bride, and quite a few visitors were present, among them Mrs. McDonald, of Grand Rapids, Mich.; Erroll Stephens of Myrtle Creek, Mrs. Darling and Mrs. Oliver of Kerby, and others.

Rev. Gray took for his theme of the morning "Great and Precious Promises," from Peter 1:4. A Youth Choir was an attraction consisting of Becky Freeman, Diane Morey, Cecily Hawk, Cristine Duncan, Raymond Mendenhall, Paul Sherier and Erroll Stephens. They sang "Follow The Gleam."

The meeting of the College and high school group was held last Thursday evening at the Hill home with a goodly number present. The number of ears of corn consumed was amazing, a good sing was had, and the topic for discussion was led by Dick Cole. This week (Thurs.) the meeting is to be at the church, with ice cream and cake promised, the discussion to be led by Becky Freeman.

The Town circle is meeting today (Thurs.) at the church, and

The Cave Shop Is Noted For Good Food At Most Reasonable Prices

That important question often arising among the people of Cave Junction and surrounding territory—where shall we go for luncheon or dinner while in Grants Pass, that will be of the best. In our opinion, that question can be easily answered. In every community the size of Grants Pass there will be some cafe or restaurant that will stand out from all others as being the one place where those who know good food and appreciate good service will be seen.

In Grants Pass the best and the outstanding place to eat is The Cave Shop at 209 North 6th Street. They cater to banquets and parties and have a seating capacity of 170 persons. Their increasing patronage is proof of the fact that those who do patronize the Cave Shop pass the "good word" along to their friends in the city and elsewhere, for a large number of out-of-town people are to be seen eating there every day.

The owner and operator of the Cave Shop, Mr. D. C. Battey, is among the few fortunate people who in addition to knowing his business thoroughly, possesses a personality that makes warm friends and steady customers of those who would otherwise remain just casual acquaintances.

Whether your desire be one of their tempting luncheons or dinners, you can be sure of receiving the best in service and the best in foods appetizingly prepared if you go to the Cave Shop at 209 North 6th Street while in Grants Pass.

NOTES

the all day picnic is on for Aug. 16 at Grayback.

A happy surprise met those who attended the Sunday evening service, when Rev. I. B. Shafer of Wheaton, Ill., representing the National Child Evangelism Fellowship with headquarters in Chicago, spoke on his work and its great importance, giving some startling statistics on the neglect of religious education for 28 million children in our U. S. and what this is to mean in future generations. His organization trains workers to deal effectively in child evangelism, and is doing splendid work.

Grants Pass Creamery ids Dairying Industry

This section of Oregon has been created and made to grow by industries that absorb and use products grown and raised in this community. Behind these progressive industries may always be seen men and companies who have had the courage to see into the future. Such a company is the Grants Pass Creamery headed by Mr. Howard F. Michel. In this centrally located plant in Grants Pass at 722 H Street is produced creamery products that are unexcelled by any similar organization in this section of Oregon.

The Grants Pass Creamery is one of the largest buyers of milk in this area and this is an advantage to the farmer and consumer as well. This company is truly a community builder. By their use of local products and their payroll, they have contributed an essential influence to the building of Josephine County.

The Grants Pass Creamery is operated in a clean, sanitary and er's Course, entitled "God's Wonderful Book," offered by Rev. D. B. Wantland of the Kerby Assembly of God Church.

EPISCOPAL SUNDAY SCHOOL
 Episcopal Sunday school is now being held each Sunday at 10 a. m. at the Legion Hall in Cave Junction. An adult class is also being organized. All are welcome.

Episcopal Group Meeting
 The Episcopal Church Group will meet Friday at 8 p. m. in the Brillhart Building at Cave Junction. Everyone is welcome.

Christian Science Churches

"SPIRIT" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 6.

The Golden Text was, "The fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, long suffering, gentleness, goodness, faith, meekness, temperance: against such there is no law" (Gal. 5:22,23).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Teach me to do thy will; for thou art my God" (Ps. 143:10), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Spirit, God, is heard when the senses are silent" (p. 89).

F.O.E. NEWS

Now that the picnic is over the turkey dinner has been forgotten. But the tug-of-war won by the men of Oregon Caves Aerie will always be remembered. The ladies lost their tug-of-war to the Cavewomen of Grants Pass. However the ladies are busy pulling for an Eagles Auxiliary which they hope to complete in the next two weeks. All women of 18 years or over who wish to be charter members of the Eagles Auxiliary should hurry and contact any of the following ladies: Mrs. Norma Tythcott, Doreen Perry, Vivian Deaton, Lorene Friel or Mrs. Les Milligan.

The Eagles candidate for queen of the Jubilee, Marian Wallace, gave a short talk over the PA system at the picnic and was graciously accepted as the Jubilee's modern fashion. The next time you are shopping for creamery products, be sure they are distributed by the Grants Pass Creamery.

In this edition of the News we feel that the Grants Pass Creamery well merit these few words about an invaluable service to the entire community and all we can do is echo the praise we have heard.

loveliest candidate, demonstrated by the demure and regal attitude as she sold many tickets to the gathering.

Marian Wallace as Queen and the Ladies Auxiliary as instituted are the Eagles objectives. Lets put them both over in good style.
