Terry Preston, Jubilee Star Is Recognized Artist

Terry Preston, handsome singer who has been engaged by the American Legion for Illinois Valley's Jubilee celebration, is a versatile artist with a reputation in the fields of stage, radio, television and recording entertainment.

Smiley Burnett, Republic motion picture star, recognized Preston's extraordinary abilities, and featured Terry in his personal appearance shows throughout the United States. He reported that Terry was a wonderful audience pleaser, being equally adept at singing, impersonations, comedy and M.C. work.

He recorded "Heart of Stone," which became a very popular record, and it was his 4 Star recording of the song which resulted in many other recordings of the number.

He has been featured on Spade Cooley's show, on T. Texas Tyler's show and on Cliffie Stone's Hometown jamouree.

JOHN DEERE
MODEL "M"

The John Deere Model "M" is a tractor that invites comparison. In usable power, in ease of handling and comfort for the operator, in day-in, day-out economy, in ease of servicing, it offers you extra value.

In the Model "M" you'll find all the fundamental features which have made John Deere 2-cylinder Tractors so successful down through the years—simple, rugged design, proper weight distribution, extra lugging power, and others. Built-in Touch-o-matic hydraulic control, self starter, adjustable air-cushioned seat, adjustable steering wheel, and standing platform are regular features.

A wide variety of Quik-Tatch working tools, four forward speeds, and power take-off are other "M" features you'll appreciate. Plan to see the "M" at work soon; see us for a demonstration.
