Harry Mills and Mrs. Marvin Cross. Owing to the illness of Mrs. Freeman, Mrs. Pauline Sherier acted as superintendent. The girls' choir is quite an addition to the service and will be meeting on Saturday at 1:30 p. m. at the church for rehearsals.

At both services a letter was read from Opal and Eldon Johnson from their Bolivian mission field, and rejoices in victories, yet tells also of hardships through rising prices and other hindrances to the work.

October 1, a week from next Sunday, will be Rally day with special features and promotions and installation of new officers.

Rev. Gray took for his morning theme, "The Peace of God," from the text in Heb. 13:20-21. The Collins family from Central Point were present and Rev. Collins told something of the victories of the past week and he and Mrs. Collins sang, "He Bore the Cross for Me."

Next Sunday afternoon there is to be a baptism, at the usual time

"SINGSPIRATION" AT KERBY

The "Singspiration" which was held last Sunday afternoon at the Kerby church was well attended, and a number of fine specials were featured.

Groups represented the churches of Wonder, Selma, Kerby, Community, Bridgeview, Gospel Tabernacle and O'Brien.

The next "Singspiration" will occur on October 15 at the Community church.

and place. We are very sorry to have a number of our fine young folks leaving this week for college. They will be greatly missed.

Two circle meetings were held last week, the Town circle on Thursday afternoon with a goodly attendance, and the Redwood circle at "Willadora" with 17 present, including Mesdames Snyder, Boucher, Hill, Curnow, Alena Brown, Peter, Gray, Burton, Galland, McDaniel, Dora Brown, and guests Mesdames Foster, Langeberg, Thomas, Short, Bushman and son Roger. Mrs. Foster and Mrs. Short became new members. Several new projects were discussed, and work was done on quilt blocks, and a game of Pennies was enjoyed by the group, no one being able to complete the questions, but several trying for high place.

Wednesday was held the first all-day meeting of the missionary society for some time, with an unusual attendance, and many plans were made for the fall. The Redwood circle was in charge of the luncheon and all articles of food—very tempting, too—were sold for so many pennies, which was a pleasing change from the covered dish plan.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD

Kerby, Oregon
Rev. D. B. Wantland, pastor

The first meeting of the Women's Missionary council convened on Thursday, September 14, with eight present. A number of quilt blocks were pieced and plans were begun to prepare Christmas boxes for some missionary families. After a very enjoyable lunch, the group was privileged to have Mrs. John Skinner lead in the devotional period and the business meeting.

The following officers were elected: Mrs. Gilbert Wantland, president; Mrs. Jess Taylor, vice president and corresponding secretary; Mrs. Marshal, secretary-treasurer.

During the afternoon two letters were read, one from India and the other from Central America.

The next meeting of the the W. M. C. will be held today, Thursday, from 2 to 4 p. m. All ladies are cordially invited to these meetings.

The training class studying "God's Wonderful Book" was concluded last week. Attendance and interest was good throughout the six weeks of study. The following completed the course and will receive certificates:

Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Wantland, Mr. and Mrs. Jess Taylor, Louise Horner, Arle Scott, Mrs. Glen Plumlee, Mrs. Eula Cox, Mrs. Ray Wedde, Mrs. Luther Sherier, Rev. and Mrs. Walter Huss, Mr and Mrs. Jucl Yandell, and Euster Martin.

This coming Sunday is Rally and Promotion day. The various classes will have a part in the program, beginning at 10 a. m. An award is to be presented to the one bringing the largest number.

Each evening this week, Sunday afternoon and evening, we will attend the evangelistic meeting in progress at the Foursquare church. Opening night (Tuesday) was outstanding with the beautiful rock display and a soul-stirring message by Pat Malone. A number responded to the altar invitation. Remember—no Sunday evening service at Kerby. Everyone attend the revival.

Episcopal Group Meeting

Last Friday evening the Episcopal Church group, with Rev. Leslie Dunton, met at the home of John and Gloria Holm in Kerby. A very interesting meeting was reported, with refreshments served.

Friday, September 22, there will be another meeting at the Holm residence. Rev. Dunton will be present each Friday evening to instruct in the study of the New Testament. All interested persons are invited to attend.

FOURSQUARE CHURCH

Rev. Walter Huss, pastor
Rev. Rosalie Huss, co-pastor
Invite you to the following services:

Sunday:
9:45 a.m. Sunday School
11:00 a.m. Morning Worship
8:00 p.m. Evangelistic Service
Thursday:
8:00 p.m. Crusader Youth Meeting

Saturday:
2:00 p.m. Junior Crusaders

The Union revival meetings with Pat Malone as the special speaker, are continuing every night through September 24. We want to urge all who have missed hearing this dynamic Irish evangelist to come out for the remaining nights of the services.

Sunday afternoon is one of the highlights of the week. Mr. Malone will answer your questions on the second coming of Christ, the atomic bomb, and also whether it is scriptural for soldiers to take lives on the battlefield. You are invited to bring your lunch and stay all day on the camp grounds of the Foursquare church.

The kids meeting this Saturday at 2 p. m. will be a missionary service in the form of an "Indian Campfire Pow Wow." Kids will enjoy this, so plan to bring your children or see that they get to the bus stop. This bus will travel the Caves highway to Holland, to Taklima, to O'Brien, and down Highway 199 to the church.

SOCIETY NOTES

The parents of Wilson Welsh of Kerby were weekend visitors at the Welsh home, and are from Swiss Home, where the father is postmaster.

Mrs. Mary M. Langeberg, of Havana, N. D., is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Clive Bushman, of the Redwood highway.

The George H. Grays had a full house Sunday when they entertained the Collins family of Central Point, and the Merle Griffin family of Grants Pass, the latter here to bid goodbye to Rev. and Mrs. Gray before Philip left for work at the University of Chicago where he has been given a very splendid scholarship for four years.

On Friday evening Mr. and Mrs. Harry Mills were the guests of Mrs. Brown and Mrs. McDaniel at "Willadora" in recognition of Mr. Mills' birthday.

Saturday evening at the home of the Mills a happy party of fifteen friends assembled to celebrate the birthdays of Harry Hills on the 16th and Mrs. Marvin Cross on the 18th. And such a banquet as only Mrs. Mills can furnish, with the birthday cake presented by Mrs. Gray. Lovely gifts and felicitations were the order of the evening which was enjoyed by all.

Quite a number of young folks are leaving this week for schools and colleges, among them Becky

Christian Science Churches

"MATTER" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 17.

The Golden Text was, "Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up" (Matt. 15:13).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Set your affection on things above, not on things on the earth" (Col. 3:2), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "We should forsake the basis of matter for metaphysical science and its divine Principle" (p. 195).
