Clifton Webb gets the ride of his life in this scene from the technicolor production "Cheaper By The Dozen"

SHOW REVUE

Saturday—
Errol Flynn turns in his rapier and gallant manner for a wild bronco and a pair of six-shooters in his latest technicolor western adventure drama, "Montana."

In Montana, the star becomes embroiled in campfire raids, street brawls, stampedes, a rousing sequence with an unbroken "devil" horse, and a sound lashing from his beautiful co-star Alexis Smith.

Sunday and Monday—
The hilarious adventures of the real-life Gilbreth family as revealed in last year's best-seller are the subject of Twentieth Century-Fox's Technicolor production, "Cheaper By the Dozen," starring Clifton Webb, Jeanne Crain and Myrna Loy.

Playing "Dad," Clifton Webb takes a respite from Belvedere roles. To make himself like the character he portrays, the noted actor became a changed man in real life, adding 22 pounds, getting rid of his crew cut, having his hair and mustache dyed red, and smoothing out his clipped and precise voice.

Jeanne Crain and Myrna Loy turn in their usual brilliant performance.

Tuesday and Wednesday—
In "Without Honor," we are given a dramatic insight into three highly exciting and terrifying hours in the life of a woman who finds herself in the tantalizing position of being married to one man, and in love with another. Then, when trouble comes, she discovers that this man on whom she has staked her whole future, refuses to stand by her.

Laraine Day is the woman in this tragic triangle, with Bruce Bennett playing her husband and Franchot Tone cast as the man she loves. In strategic supporting roles are Dane Clark and Agnes Morehead.

On the same bill we have "Masked Raiders," starring Tim Holt and Richard Martin. They portray a pair of Texas Rangers who break up a band of outlaws operating in the Big Bend region in the "Eighties."

Lesley Selander directed the offering, which features Marjorie Lord, Gary Gray and Charles Arnt.

Thursday and Friday—

A very definite must on your calendar is "Under Capricorn," starring Ingrid Bergman and Joseph Cotten.

The story is set in Australia in 1831, when the growing British colony was being built up mainly by the work of convicts who, after serving their sentences, could become free citizens. Against this colorful background is traced the tense drama of a freed convict, his wife, and a wild young Irishman who loses his heart to her.
