mediate group, Mrs. Sherier leader

Reverend Pat Malone occupied the pulpit at both morning and evening services. His theme for the morning was "God's Way of Financing His Church." It was a soul searching and soul searing sermon, reminding us that all we have belongs to God, yet we fail to give Him what is rightfully His.

The evening theme was "Our God of Love Can Also Be a God of Wrath". This was the last service of the special meetings.

Mrs. Margaret Williams of Los Angeles was a visitor at the morning service. She is visiting the Freeling Sawyers.

The Town circle met last Thursday, with a large group present.
Mrs. Salvage and Mrs. George were hostesses. The president, Mrs. Salvage, was happy to report that the fifty dollars for the general Missionary society had been raised.

Sunday school attendance last Sunday was one hundred and thirty. Jimmy Cody celebrated his seventh birthday.

In following the theme of fellowship, Norma Martin told a story about working together. Mrs.
Carothers led responsive reading from the twelfth chapter of Romans. A blackboard talk called "Fellowship" was given by Don Preston, Mrs. Versteeg and Mrs.
Gibbons.

Mrs. McGivan's class of beginners was the banner class with 29 present. They said a memory verse.

The Valley said goodbye to Rev. and Mrs. Pat Malone Sunday night with the closing service at Community church. We shall not forget the driving and forceful messages of this fighting Irish evangelist nor will the revival fires cease to burn. In fact, each church that cooperated in these special meetings is stirred deeply and is experiencing a rekindled urgency to preach, teach and live the gospel message that "Jesus Saves". Jesus Christ is the answer to the problems of your life, home, business and our nation.
Turn to him today, accept him while you may, and see what He can do for you.
