A group of friends surprised Rev. and Mrs. Gray on the evening of November 21 with a "pound shower". They received everything from "soup to nuts". Everyone had a good time. The weather was pleasant and the children had fun playing out of doors. The adults had their share of fun playing games. Some of them were thought-provoking; others just whimsical.

A story Christmas cantata, "The Uncrowned King", will be presented by the young people of the church. Mrs. Marvin Cross will direct the dramatic portion, and Mr. Meiser, music director of the Kerby grade school will direct the chorus and musical numbers. Mrs. Gordon Leonard will be the pianist. The evening of December 20 has been chosen for the date of the program. The morning of December 24 the boys and girls of the Sunday school will present their program.

Many people are enjoying the hymns played over the amplifier on Sunday morning. If you have a favorite number you would like to hear, we may have it or can get it for you. Our selection of recordings is steadily growing.

There were one hundred and fifty-one present at Sunday school last week.

George and Gary Bell gave a scripture reading and talk on the way Christians spend their money.

Mrs. Champney read a Thanksgiving poem.

A surprise birthday party was given by Mrs. Leo Sullivant in her home for her son Joe. Upon invitation of many friends for the occasion, the surprises were doubled when it was revealed the Sunday school superintendent, Mrs. Mabel Yandell, and the teaching staff had gathered also to honor our junior department teacher, Mrs. Sullivant, on the occasion of her birthday. Under the planning and coaching of Mrs. Sullivant our members and Holland friends were able to make up the attendance for a very enjoyable evening.

Certainly we are living in perilous times. In such an hour as this we are exhorted by the Apostle Paul to "not forsake the assembling of ourselves together (in the Lord's house) as the manner of some is, but rather to be in church more so as we see the day of end time approaching." We urge all people everywhere to attend church somewhere. God said "Obedience is better than sacrifice." Let's all turn out for Sunday school and next Sunday at 11 a.m. we will observe the holy communion. We will have special prayer for our country, our leaders and our supreme commanders imploring God's intervention, wisdom and guidance be given in this "critical international situation."

CHURCH OF CHRIST

"Everlasting Punishment" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, October 29.

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "For God shall bring every work into judgment, with every secret thing, whether it be good, or whether it be evil" (Eccl. 12:14), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Truth, through her eternal laws, unveils error" (p. 542).
