

BLESSED EVENTS

BURTON—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Alfred I. Burton, Route 1, box 784, Cave Junction on Monday, November 20, 1950, at 6:48 a. m., a daughter weighing six pounds nine and one-quarter ounces.

KIMBALL—Born to Mr. and Mrs. Oris O. Kimball of O'Brien on Monday, November 20, 1950, at 8:35 p. m., a daughter weighing six pounds 10 ounces.

John Dillard Attends Telephone Conference

Mr. and Mrs. John Dillard of the Redwoods Telephone company traveled to Portland last Friday afternoon to attend a board of directors meeting of the Independent Telephone association of Oregon. They returned to Cave Junction immediately after the Saturday conference.

—Subscribe To The News—

Open Every

FRIDAY NIGHT

Until Christmas

Bob and Ruth Shop

Your Gift From
Valley Sporting Goods
Is Sure To Please

HIM

Be it rifle, shotgun, pistol or revolver, fishing rod and reel, binoculars, camera, or camping equipment.
Come in and look around. You are always welcome to "just look."

VALLEY SPORTING GOODS
THIRD DOOR SOUTH OF THE POST OFFICE

BANK OF ILLINOIS VALLEY

"OUR BANK"

DEPOSITS NOW INSURED UP TO $10,000.00

What Factors Safeguard Bank Deposits?

1. GOOD BANK MANAGEMENT. This is the underlying factor in the protection of your deposits.
2. SOUND BANK SUPERVISION. Adherence to rigid standards is checked through regular bank examinations.
3. FEDERAL DEPOSIT INSURANCE. Each depositor of an insured bank is insured up to the new maximum of $10,000 for all deposits held in the same right and capacity. We and other member banks pay the full cost of Federal Deposit Insurance.

We Invite Your Account

SAFE DEPOSIT BOXES FOR RENT

I. V. H. S.

JUNIOR CLASS PLAY

"Just Ducky"

FRIDAY, DECEMBER 1st, 8:15 P. M.

AT
KERBY GYM

Adults 60c
Students 45c
Children 25c

This Advertisement Courtesy
FRENCH LAUNDRY
GRANTS PASS

Socials and Club News

Guardian Council Meets

The guardian council of Job's Daughters met Tuesday night, November 28, at the Masonic Temple to discuss ways and means to raise money for the Bethel treasury.

The following members of the council were present: guardian, Mary Lloyd; associate guardian, Henry Lloyd; guardian of finance, Harold Bowerman; guardian secretary, Carolyn Covington; guardian treasurer, Joan Beene; guardian of hospitality, Shirley Wells; guardian of paraphernalia, Winifred Mulvey, and guardian of publicity, Marie White. Carol Burr and Sharon Bengel were visitors.

A pie social is planned for January 12, 8 p. m. at the Masonic Temple. Everyone is welcome to come and bring the children for they can have fun at the fish pond that is planned for them.

The books were audited by guardian of finance Harold Bowerman and associate guardian Henry Lloyd.

The next council meeting is to be held January 23 at the home of Carolyn Covington. All council members are asked to mark the date on their new calendars.

F. O. E. News

The Fraternal Order of Eagles Aerie No. 3055 of Cave Junction holds the distinction of giving the second largest donation to the Damon Runyon Cancer fund in the entire state of Oregon. They are also second to none on the membership drive for the month of November.

At the last regular Friday meeting, eighteen new members were initiated and more are coming in every day. This speaks well for the baby aerie, and the officers and members are planning ahead for the future of the organization. You may ask any Eagle for information on how to become a Patron Eagle. Everyone is invited to come in now and help build the fraternity.

The Ladies' Auxiliary will be instituted Sunday, December 10, at 2 p. m. in the American Legion hall. This is a spectacular event and well worth attending but its reserved for members only.

Missionary Society Notes

Please note! The Christmas party which was to have been held at the church by the Missionary society on December 20 will be on December 6, two weeks earlier. This will be an afternoon meeting starting at 1:30 and there will be a gift exchange. Please come and bring along a friend and a gift.

Mrs. Arvella Cady and Mr. and Mrs. Van Wilgus of Burlingame, California, were visitors in the Vern Cady home on Thanksgiving. Mrs. Wilgus is a sister to Vern; Mrs. Cady his mother.

Kerby Bethel News

Daughters of Job, Bethel No. 38 met at the Masonic Temple in Kerby Monday, November 20.

Honored Queen Phyllis Dick presided at the meeting. A large gathering was present for the meeting and to witness the beautiful initiation ceremony of the order.

Norma and Betty Robinson were initiated and welcomed. During the ceremony, Honored Queen Phyllis Dick and Past Honored Queen Ruth Smith sang "Come Holy Spirit." Norma and Betty were given their pins of the order by Carolyn Covington, guardian secretary. Honored Queen Phyllis Dick pinned on the beautiful corsages.

Charlene McDaniel, junior princess, sang a solo, "I Know That My Redeemer Liveth," at the close of the initiation.

Election of officers followed, and the officers selected were:

Honored queen, Sharon Bengel; senior princess, Marilyn Masters; junior princess, Carol Burr; guide, Jonelle Bengel; marshal, Mae Bowerman; chaplain, Claire Cooper; junior custodian, Merrill Simington; senior custodian, Jackie Strohkirch; recorder, Barbara Clayton; treasurer, June George; 1st messenger, Wilma Downing; 2nd messenger, Donna Zimmerman; 3rd messenger, Betty Robinson; 5th messenger, Christine Duncan; inner guard, Pat Wright; outer guard, Norma Robinson; librarian, Phyllis Dick; lady of lights, Deanna Hembree; historian, Beverly Brillhart.

Plans were made for installation of officers December 4, and it is open to the public.

After an interesting meeting, Bethel was closed in its usual beautiful way and all adjourned to the dining room for refreshments.

Please take notice, all officers and officers elect and DeMolays. There is to be an installation practice Sunday, December 3, at 1:30 p. m. in the Masonic Temple. It is very important for all participants to be there.

V.F.W. Auxiliary Notes

The Veterans of Foreign Wars and Auxiliary held a special meeting Monday evening to complete plans for their turkey shoot that is to be held in December in plenty of time to win a turkey for Christmas. The event is to be held at the O'Brien Women's clubhouse.

It was voted to send homemade candy and cookies to Camp White for Christmas.

The annual bazaar that was held November 18 in the Dews building was very successful. Aprons and cooked food were the best selling articles. The few pieces of needlework left over will be used for game prizes at the turkey shoot.

District President Pattie Hopkins made an official visit to

SELMA NEWS ITEMS

(Mrs. Fritz Krauss)

A large and enthusiastic crowd attended the pie social and carnival Friday evening at the Selma school.

Mrs. Elsie Northup and Mr. Bearss received turkeys.

The pies were auctioned off with none of them bringing less than eight dollars and the top price was fifteen dollars.

A net total of three hundred and fifty-five dollars was realized for the Christmas and lunch room funds.

Mrs. Richard Willis was guest of honor at a stork shower Wednesday afternoon, November 15. She received many lovely gifts.

Mrs. J. H. Pomeroy and her sister, Mrs. Harold Bowes of Sacramento, visited recently with Mrs. Pomeroy's daughter and family, the Dave Plants at the Deer creek ranch.

Mrs. Charles Carter is home again after spending one month and two days in the hospital in Grants Pass.

Jr. Women's Club News

The regular meeting of the Junior Women's club was held in the Auxiliary room Friday, November 17.

Guests for the evening were Grace Blanchard, Anne Roby, Barbara James, Marjorie Rivers, and Elsie Zallie, all of Grants Pass.

Mrs. Blanchard gave a very interesting talk on federation.

At the close of the evening delicious refreshments were served at an attractively decorated table by hostesses Pat Stem, Ettie Brading and Joan Huber.

A cake sale will be held Saturday, December 2, at Sherier's Illinois Valley cleaners. The proceeds will go toward buying equipment for the Kerby school playground.

The children of Kerby need this equipment and local patronage of this sale Saturday will help toward furnishing these supplies.

the auxiliary last meeting to inspect the books and explain some of the new rules passed at the last national encampment. It is now possible for the mothers, daughters and sisters of women overseas veterans to join the auxiliary, as well as the veteran herself.

OLD PAPERS for starting fires for sale at the News office.

American Legion News

Commander O. B. Nassen cordially welcomes all GIs to witness the initiation of new candidates to be held at the next business meeting Wednesday, December 6, at 8 p. m. This will allow comrades ample time to secure applications and have their new candidates ready. Time is drawing close and the quota has not yet been filled.

The Legion Hoopsters basketball team is forming in grand style. Chairman Ed Martin says there will always be room for one more participant. All men interested in joining the team should see Executive Officer Art Kellert for particulars. This is a fast, clever team, so all sport fans will want to come out and see the games. The first game will be here December 7 against the Rogue River Homesteaders.

Larry Goff and wife spent the holidays in Bellingham, Washington, with his family.

Radio Repairs

"The Best for less
by Les"

BASHAM
RADIO SERVICE

8, 10 Mile East On Caves Hiway

PIE SOCIAL

At

O'Brien School House

Friday, December 8th — 8 P.M.

Dancing and Games

WATCHES

for
Dependable, Nationally Known
Watches at Reasonable Prices,
Go To

JOHNSON JEWELER
619 East "H" St., Grants Pass

We often have excellent used watches at ridiculously
low prices.

H. L. PRITCHARD CO.

126 North Front St.

Phone 2-5227

Medford, Oregon

507 East "G" St.

Phone 3646

Grants Pass, Oregon

Authorized Distributor

TIMKEN — SKF — HYATT BEARINGS
New Departure Bearings — National Seals
NICHOLSON FILES — BUNTING BRONZE

Bearings for Trucks, Tractors,
Industrial and Farm Equipment.

Trains and ACCESSORIES

THE BOB & RUTH SHOP

GLAMOROUS WIDOW

by AUDAVEE BRANSFORD