CHURCH NOTES

CAVE JUNCTION COMMUNITY CHURCH

9:50 a.m. Sunday School.

Junior church, Mrs. Eatherton leader.

7:45 p.m. Evening service and auditorium; and Junior and Intermediate group, Mrs. Sherier leader

Reverend Gray's sermon last Sunday was a very helpful one, showing us how Christ is ever ready to help us bear our burdens.
His text was taken from Matthew 11 chapter, 28-29 and 30 verses.
He told us how the devil's yoke is very uneven, for we bear the weight of all of it. Christ's yoke is also uneven for He bears most of the weight. "For my yoke is easy and my burden is light," Matthew 11-30. "Christians have their problems, but sin has its consequences," was one point he made.

The choir sang "Beyond the Sunset." Mrs. Freeman is doing a very fine work in directing the young folks' choir.

SUNDAY SCHOOL NEWS

Attendance at Sunday school was back up again last week to one hundred and seventy-eight.

Nathan Welsh told a story on the stewardship of the gospel.
Mrs. Carothers and her class of intermediate boys gave the lesson on stewardship of the church and what Christians should do with their lives.

The beginners were the banner class with forty-one present.

Attendance at Sunday school is

Those who were privileged to attend the Branham meetings at Grants Pass report wonderful things as the result of prayer and faith in God. On Sunday, the last day of these services, many hundreds of people were turned away being unable to get into the tabernacle.

On Thursday, December 21 at 7:45 p. m. the Sunday school will present its annual Christmas program. The program will be as follows: recitations by the beginners; "The Real Meaning of

The Christmas party for the Women's Missionary society of the Community church was held as planned on Wednesday afternoon at the church parlors. Thirty-two ladies were present, all of whom seemed to enjoy everything.
Christmas giving was the spirit of the day, through the treasury of the society, and then there was a gift exchange, followed by refreshments. Hostesses for the afternoon were Twyla Salvage, Bertha Boucher, Pauline Hembree and V. McDaniel.

Harry Hensley

Harry Hensley, 60, of Dryden shot himself fatally at 4:30 p. m.
Monday at his home, according to Virgil Hull, county coroner. Mrs.
Hensley said that her husband had been in ill health and despondent for some time.

Hensley was born March 25, 1890, in North Carolina. He had made his home in Dryden for 19 years.

The deceased is survived by his widow, Zelma Hensley of Dryden; two sons, Ben A. of Dryden and W. W. Hensley of Central Point, and a daughter, Barbara Jane Robinson, Salem.

The remains are at the Hull and Hull mortuary in Grants Pass.

church house just south of J. S.
Bedingfield's residence on the cemetery road. Everyone is cordially invited.

Christian Science Churches

"GOD the Only Cause and Creator" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, December 3.

The Golden Text was, "Lord, thou art God, which hast made heaven and earth, and the sea, and all that in them is" (Acts 4:24).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible:
"I am the Lord, and there is none else, there is no God beside me" (Isa. 45:5), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "A belief in other gods, other creators, and other creations must go down before Christian Science" (p. 535).
