American Legion News

The Legion Hoopsters Basketball team took a 38-57 shellacking from the Crazy Swayzy's of Medford. The sidelines were filled by Illinois Valley people who were disappointed at the loss of the game, but astounded by the action and superb playing ability of both teams. The team went to Glendale Wednesday and will play here again sometime after Christmas.

At this time, the American Legion is thinking of good will toward man and hoping for peace on earth. The Valley is faring well and even the kids are fortunately happy while awaiting Santa Claus to come to Cave Junction this year. So may we wish you all a very Merry Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Scout Party Canceled

The Christmas program for the James Boy's Home given by Girl Scout Troops 88 and 92 had to be cancelled due to illness at the home. However, the girls are sending a Christmas treat to the boys with a promise of a program at a later date.

Valley Refrigeration Moves

The Valley Refrigeration has moved into new quarters in the building across from the Bank of Illinois Valley.

Socials and Club News

F. O. E. NEWS

Because of personal and civic demands at Christmas time, the Eagles have postponed their regular Friday, December 22, meeting in favor of the ladies Auxiliary, who will take over the hall for that evening. However Friday, December 29, will be a social meeting of both units as a means of comparison of progress.

The Eagle's donation baskets have not been filled and more canned goods are needed. You need not be a member to avail yourself of this privilege. Just bring contributions of groceries to W. V. P. Glen Perry's barber shop and help the Eagles spread Christmas cheer to the needy, and good will for the Valley.

F. O. E. Auxiliary News

The new auxiliary of Oregon Caves Aerie No. 3055, Fraternal Order of Eagles, conducted the first meeting under the newly appointed officers Friday, December 15, at the Tythcott residence. Committee assistants were chosen as follows: Grace Webb, visiting; Joy Badden and Hazel Henry, membership; Mabelle Duncan, Holly Landaker, Edith Bennett and Dorothy Smith, entertainment; Pansy Sauer, publicity and Lorene Freel and Irene George, finance.

Initiation will be every third Friday of the month and every fourth Friday will be a social with refreshments served after the meeting. Officers and committee meetings will be every first and third Monday of the month followed by a meeting of the trustees.

Contrary to report of last publication, the charter was closed Sunday, Dec. 10, at 2:00 p. m. However, all new members will be cordially welcomed and anyone wishing to become a member please contact Hollis George, Joy Badden or Hazel Henry.

Illinois Valley Home
Extension Unit Meeting

The regular meeting of the Illinois Valley H. E. U. and Christmas party, was held at the home of Ruth Hill, December 12, at 11 a. m. The Christmas gifts were distributed before the lunch was served and everyone seemed pleased with her gift.

Ruth Wendt read a very interesting letter she had received from her pen pal in England. After hearing of their strict rationing over there, all members felt happy to think they live in the good old U. S. A.

Eve Yarnell, a new member, gave a fine talk on meal planning and the different kinds of food to serve at a meal.

There were twenty-five members present, two guests, Mrs. Gihon and Mrs. Gill, and twelve children.

A white elephant sale is planned for next meeting.

Successful Turkey Shoot

The turkey shoot held last Sunday sponsored by the Veterans of Foreign Wars was a real success both financially and socially.

Thanks are due the orderly crowd of sportsmen and women who attended and apparently enjoyed themselves. Remarkable skill was shown by the many marksmen who took home the turkeys.

Visiting gun club members gave our local dead-shots some real competition but the Valley can be proud of the scores won by our own riflemen.

The committee wishes to thank the many individuals and business people who cooperated to help make the event such a success. Special appreciation is extended to Edna Haskins, L. J. Tythcott, worthy President of the Fraternal Order of the Eagles, The Illinois Valley News, Bill Raines, Clay Ramsey, O. E. Nassen, Commander of the Legion, Ellsworth Cooke, Ben George and Mr. and Mrs. Owen of Owen's Market.

Girl Scout Activities

The Girl Scout Leaders Club of the Illinois Valley met Tuesday at the I. O. O. F. hall in Kerby. Leaders present were: Doris Beauvais, Barnette Smith, Rose Cook, Goody Aller, Mabelle Duncan, Joy Badden and Charlotte Parkinson.

A delicious pot luck was served at noon.

Many gifts were brought in to be taken to the Parkview rest home.

The next troop leaders meeting will be the fourth Tuesday in February.

Charlotte Parkinson is the daughter of Mrs. Badden whom she is visiting during the holidays. Charlotte lives in San Pedro, California where she is a Brownie Troop leader.

Legion Auxiliary News

The membership drive is still underway and going strong for new and renewal memberships. Anyone eligible for the American Legion Auxiliary is urged to join at once. If in doubt of eligibility, please contact Hazel Henry, president, or Irene McCasland, membership chairman. All new members will be cordially welcomed.

The Legion auxiliary will handle the canteen service for the mobile blood bank unit which is being formed in the Valley. No date has as yet been set for this project.

It is not too late to send cancelled stamps or pocket size western books to Camp White. If you have either and wish to give them, please bring them to the next meeting. Myrtle Clifford, Q Bar X Ranch, is in charge of hospital and will welcome all donations.

OLD NEWSPAPERS for starting fires for sale at News office.

Selma P-T. A. Meeting

The Selma P-T.A met in regular session December 7. Monthly reports were given and accepted and the by-laws read by Mrs. Thelma Lundquist.

The report on the carnival and the social held last month for the Christmas fund and the lunch room showed a net of three hundred and sixty-seven dollars.

The school will give their annual Christmas program with treats for the children December 21. They plan to hold it at the church. The parents will meet December 20 to sack the candy and decorate the tree and all parents are invited to help.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacobson and Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Allen are new members.

Refreshments were served.

Auxiliary Card Party

The last card party of a series of four was well attended Saturday, December 16, in the auxiliary rooms at the Legion hall. Ladies grand prize for this series went to Helen Krauss. Cecil Brink was high scorer for the men.

Watch the paper for notice of the next series to start early in January.

Mr. and Mrs. Bob Harrington and son Teddy have gone to Los Angeles for the holidays.
