Of Ginger Rogers' elaborate new three-tiered earrings, psychologists warn—"You're older than you think if you notice the baubles until after you've stared at Ginger for quite some time two or three seconds, anyhow."

NOTICE

The editor of the Illinois Valley News will be on a business trip from December 26 through December 30, making it necessary to change the usual deadline for news and advertising to Saturday evening, December 23. This is for the December 28 issue of the News.

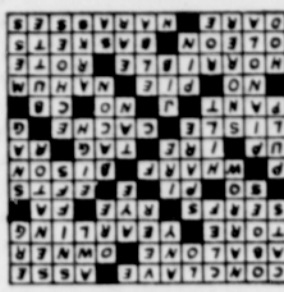

The public has been most cooperative with the News this past year, and we will appreciate your attention to this deadline change.

The News office will be closed next week. News and other material may be slipped under the door.

SELMA NEWS ITEMS

(Mrs. Fritz Krauss)

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Verstegen, formerly of Medford but lately from Cave Junction, have leased the Selma Cafe formerly operated by Bob and Elsie Northrup. They plan to remain open 7 days a week.

The Verstegen's have two children; Sharon who is in high school and Billy in the sixth grade.

The Northrups have moved to Grants Pass to be nearer Mrs. Northrup's father, Kurt Hudson, who is in poor health.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Kothe and Mr. Kothe's sister and her husband, Mr. and Mrs. Murphy from Grants Pass, have gone to Wyoming to be with Mr. Murphy's father who is seriously ill.

Raymond Wiswell writes home that he has been transferred to the Tripler General Hospital in Pearl Harbor. He was on the "Magpie" and was transferred to the "Natchang" shortly before the "Magpie" was sunk. "Lucky break" he says. He hopes to spend the rest of his enlistment on the Islands but is going to try to come home for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Rainey have gone to California to spend the holidays with relatives and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Hansen gave a birthday party for their daughter Muriel Friday evening. Guests included Chub Hammons and his parents from Grants Pass.

Mrs. Hansen's mother, Mrs. W. C. Ferguson of Concord, Calif., is here for the holidays. Mr. Ferguson will arrive in a few days.

Mr. and Mrs. John Brewer and family are going to Oklahoma for the holidays.
