

The Town circle served a very nice luncheon on Thursday to about twenty-five ladies and to Mr. Gray. No business meeting was held. Items of business will be taken care of next month at the regular time.

The women of the Missionary society were invited guests of the O'Brien Women's club on Friday afternoon. Several members were present to enjoy the speaker, Mrs. Birdseye, and the social time with the members of the club.

Little Judy Fields, daughter of Rev. and Mrs. Douglas Fields of Selma, is ill with both the mumps and measles.

O'Brien Women's Club
Has Silver Tea

President Edna Hoskins opened her meeting of the O'Brien Women's club Friday, May 11 with group singing "God Bless America."

After the business meeting, corsages were presented to the eldest mother, all mothers over seventy and the youngest mother.

The mother with the most children was Mrs. Thatcher of O'Brien, who has eleven children. The oldest mother was Lillie Peters, who is 89 years old.

The president presented corsages to past presidents Nellie Wilber, Rena Webb, Ellen Hartwell, Lois Brink and Bessie Knipple.

Two new members, Mrs. Campbell and Mrs. Lena Owens joined the club.

The date was set for the spring Chinese luncheon, Wednesday May 23. Luncheon will be at 12:30 p. m., and cards will be played in the afternoon.

Peggy Hubbard, chairman of the entertainment committee, presented the following Mothers' Day program: two songs, "That Old Irish Mother of Mine" and "The Old Spinning Wheel," beautifully sung by Mrs. Lois Spencer accompanied by Alberta Proctor.

The guest speaker, Mrs. Effie Birdseye, was introduced and gave a very interesting talk on pioneer life in Jackson and Josephine counties in the early days of 1850.

Attention was called to a display of antiques brought by different members of the club.

Tea was served from a beautifully arranged table. The centerpiece was composed of lovely spring blossoms, a nice gesture from Mabel Ramsey.

Ladies who served at the tea table were Nellie Wilbur and Alberta Proctor.

Hostesses for the day were Sophia Bunch, Alberta Proctor, Ruth Wendt and Peggy Milburn.

Ditch Digger Acquired

Al C. Thayer, city watermaster, announces that he has purchased a Sherman-Hoe digger to dig new ditches and improve the existing lines of the city water system.

The digger belongs to Mr. Thayer and will be available for "custom" work in between city jobs.

Rebekah Activities

Marguerite Rebekah Lodge No. 111 opened in regular form May 9, in the Oddfellows hall at Kerby with Noble Grand Carolyn Covington presiding. Several members were absent due to illness.

There was discussion concerning the cooked food sale to be held May 12 at the Illinois Valley Cleaners.

Plans for the Rebekah dinner to be held at a date which will be given later are well under way.

Pearl Houch, who had been elected to go as delegate to grand lodge, will be unable to attend due to other plans. Mabel Ramsey will go as an alternate.

Virginia Steimer was appointed page, and will attend if no more mumps make their appearance at her house.

Grand lodge will be held at Klamath Falls on May 22 to 24 inclusive.

Betty Doney was given a surprise stork shower and received many beautiful gifts. Noble Grand Carolyn presented Betty with a beautiful spray of tulips.

The birthday jar was emptied with the addition of several dollars which are to be added to the growing carpet fund.

Several humorous games were enjoyed.

Following the adjournment of the meeting, refreshments were served at tables that had been decorated by Hilda Magnuson, Erna Doney, Polly Hembree and Twyla Salvage. His majesty, the stork, was the center-piece with bowls filled with pink and white flowers making the setting. Streamers of pink, blue and white extended from the ceiling to the table. Nut cups were cleverly made in the form of the very useful triangle, while napkins were made in four shapes.

Several secret pals were remembered.

Following a very enjoyable time, members departed to their homes. The next meeting will be on May 23, to which all Rebekahs are welcome.

Mr. and Mrs. Val Southward of Kerby have received word that their son Charles, who has recently been home since his return to the U. S., is being trained as an instructor in a tank division. Corporal Southward is a Marine veteran of the Korean war.

Church

CAVE JUNCTION COMMUNITY CHURCH

George H. Gray, Pastor
9:50 a.m. Sunday School.
11:00 a.m. Church service; and
7:45 p.m. Evening service and auditorium; and Junior and Intermediate group, Mrs. Sherier leader Junior church, Mrs. Etherton leader.

We had a visiting speaker, Reverend F. W. Hopkins of Sunny Valley, who used John 19: 25-27 as his text in which verses Christ shows deep concern for his own mother at His death.

Dwain and Lilabelle Cross sang a lovely duet, "My Mother's Bible."

There were several visitors both at Sunday school and the church services. Among them were Mrs. Vern Cady, Mrs. Carl Hammer, H. W. Jones, Mrs. F. W. Hopkins, Mrs. J. R. McWilliams, Mrs. Sutphen, who is here from Pasadena, and Mrs. George P. Martin of Rogue River who was visiting her sons Robert and Edward.

Please do not forget the "singspiration" which is to be at the Cave Junction Community church on Sunday, May 27, at 2:30 p. m. These are really enjoyable affairs where you have the opportunity to sing and to listen to others do the same. Everyone is welcome.

Sunday School News

Sunday school attendance was one hundred and sixty-three last week.

A song by the congregation opened the service, and Starla Floyd recited "The Heavenly Mold." Other recitations of the day were: "I Love My Mother Very Much," by Jennie Low; "A Prayer," Janice Etherton; "I Love You," Carol Hammer; "My Mother Does," Carol Preston; "A Boy's Love," Vern Cady; "Our Mother's Day," Norma, Roberta and Carol Martin; "But I Love Mom," Bucky Chamberlin; "Mother," sung by Carlene Welsh; "Mother's Garden," Larry Preston, Ronald Spencer, Claude Champney and Charles Nicholson, and "A Mother's Wish," given by Mrs. Freeman.

The oldest mother present was Mrs. Brown and the youngest mother present was Mrs. Gill. Both were presented with a bouquet of flowers.

Birthdays were celebrated by Lee Carothers, Gregory Floyd, Mrs. Mayfield, Mrs. Floyd, Mrs. Welch, Mrs. Hussey and Mrs. Seat.

The contest is coming along fine. Last week found the Alpha side a few points ahead.

There will be no services at the Cave Junction Seventh-day Adventist church Saturday, May 19 it was announced by Walter Chapman, elder.

The members of the church will attend the services in the new church on Highway 99 North at Evelyn street in Grants Pass, where Elder Joseph H. Apigian will preach his farewell sermon, which will also be the first sermon in the new church. Elder Apigian has been chosen to campaign for funds throughout the Oregon conference for the new academy at Milo, 17 miles east of Canyonville, which is greatly needed.

HONOR THY MOTHER was spelled by the first letters of texts taken from the Bible which tell how God can be honored, quoted by members of the Young Peoples' Missionary Volunteer society in a Mothers' Day program last Saturday. Another interesting feature was the lighting of six candles, each one a tribute to the companionship, prayer, Bible, sacrifice, loyalty and love of mothers.

In last week's paper it was stated that Evangelist A. O. Sage would open a series of meetings in the new church in Grants Pass Sunday May 13. This was a mistake, for which your reporter is sorry. Evangelist Sage will open next Sunday, May 20. His subject will be "Will Russia Absorb all Europe and Asia?" "The March of Russia" will be a motion picture beginning at 7:15 p. m.

Mothers' Day brought out one hundred and ten people to Sunday school.

All classes were represented in a Mothers' Day program. The young peoples' quartet sang "If I Could Only Hear My Mother Pray Again."

Birthdays were celebrated by Mrs. David Barton and Gilbert Wantland. Mothers honored were: oldest mother, Mrs. Yandell, and youngest mother, Mrs. Price.

Reverend Wantland chose for his text of the morning second Timothy, chapter 1.

Monday evening, election of church and Sunday school officers. The building program will be discussed.

Branam meetings will start May 15 and continue through May 23 in Grants Pass. A young man twenty-one years of age will follow Brother Branam.

No prayer meeting this week, and no Sunday night service so members can attend the meetings in Grants Pass.

Missionary picnic at Grayback postponed until May 24.

The C. A. was led by Buster Martin.

The pastor chose his sermon from Luke eleven, verse nine. "And I say unto you, ask and it shall be given you; seek and ye shall find; knock and it shall be opened unto you."

A special song given by Mrs. Wendell Lee and Mrs. Murf entitled "No One Ever Cared For Me Like Jesus" was enjoyed by all.

Christian Science Churches

"ADAM and Fallen Man" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 13.

The Golden Text was, "As by one man's disobedience many were made sinners, so by the obedience of one shall many be made righteous" (Rom 5:19).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "For as in Adam all die, even so in Christ shall all be made alive" (I Cor. 15:22) together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science text book, Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures by Mary Baker Eddy: "The history of Jesus shows him to have been more spiritual than all other earthly personalities . . . Explaining and demonstrating the way of divine Science, he became the way of salvation to all who accepted his word" (p. 315).
