

M. K. (Bud) Snyder III, son of M. K. Snyder Jr. of Kelso, Washington, arrived in the Valley Thursday to visit his cousins, Richard and Mike Burnett of Cave Junction.

Mrs. Ruth Dougherty and her two sons, Russell and Victor, from Richmond, California are visiting Mrs. Dougherty's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jack O. Rogers of Cave Junction.

— LOCALS —

Mornay Athey, former publisher of the Illinois Valley News and now residing in Portland, was a visitor in the Valley Tuesday and Wednesday of this week. Mrs. Athey was unable to accompany him.

A family reunion was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Sherrier on Sunday. A delicious turkey dinner was enjoyed by the eighteen guests.

Mabel and Tom Stark of Venice, California, are visiting Jack and Opal Spitz at the Wish-U-Well motel. They are on their way to Bandon, Oregon.

Mr. and Mrs. V. G. McCasland of Missouri, arrived Monday to visit Mr. and Mrs. Tom White and friends. They plan to be here a week and then go to California.

Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Upp from Hillsboro, Ohio and Mr. and Mrs. Richard Swan of Port Collins, Colorado, will be living at the Illinois Valley Ranger station during the summer. Ralph will be trail foreman and Richard is scaler.

The Harold Bowerman family, with the exception of Mr. Bowerman, attended the wedding of Kerlin Sanders and Robert Rentschler in Medford Tuesday, June 19. Miss Sanders is a former resident of the Valley.

Two local graduates of Stanford university received their bachelor of arts degrees at commencement exercises held Sunday, June 17.

John Burton Moore, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hal Moore Sr. of Kerby, received his B. A. in speech and drama. A B.A. also went to Lynn Cabell White, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gordon White of Selma, in the biological sciences.

Mrs. George Duncan of Kerby, now a proud grandmother, reports that her daughter, Mrs. Grace Simon, is the mother of a bouncing baby boy named Donald Ray. The baby was born in the Sacred Heart hospital in Eugene, and at birth weighed the astounding total of two and three-quarters pounds! He now has his private room, an incubator, and will probably remain there for at least a month. Donald Ray is bound to be a big fellow; he is no longer than a 15 inch ruler, but he has all the chance in the world to become as tall as his dad, who is over six feet tall.

Frank Ward of Kerby cut his thumb June 18, while doing carpentry work. Several stitches were necessary, as it was a deep cut.

Mr. Howard Beasley of Takilma received a head injury when the axe he was using to cut branches, slipped and cut into the back of his ear.

Mr. H. E. Gage of Cave Junction has been ill with the flu but is recovering nicely.

Ben George arrived home Tuesday from Josephine General hospital, where he has been recovering from a heart attack.

Mr. and Mrs. George Mulvey were entertained at a dinner at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Claud Bulla on Sunday, June 17.

David Rhea of Bakersfield, California, formerly of Cave Junction, arrived here Monday, June 18 to visit with relatives and friends in the Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spitz heard from their son Norman, who is in Korea. He has been in the hospital at Pusan for two and one-half weeks with a chipped leg bone. Norman hopes to be home sometime during the summer.

Rev. Gray and family had a Father's day re-union on Sunday when the Griffin family from Grants Pass came out to be with the family, and Phillip who is home from his school in the east has remained over to be of service to Oris Seat, who is quite ill with asthma and confined to his bed.

Mr. and Mrs. Herb Drews entertained with a dinner party in their yard on Sunday evening, June 17, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Paul Palmer whose June birthdays are only two weeks apart. Mrs. Palmer's birthday was the 13th and Mr. Palmer's will be the 27th.

The evening was spent playing pinochle and canasta, singing by the group and a special number for the Palmers by Herb Drews, "May the Good Lord Bless and Keep Thee." They were given a lovely gift by the group.

Those present were the Palmers, the Frank Raubers, Jack Spitz, the Ed Knipples, the Cecil Brinks, the Phil Kellers, Ray Proctor, the John Milburns and Mrs. Wells, who is visiting her daughter, Mrs. Drews.
