MORAL DISCIPLINE AND THE WEATHER

Does warm weather make people wreckless?

You can say that it makes more wrecks!

The monthly reports of state departments having the records show that warm weather has an effect on accidents and law violators.

The State Police department makes more arrests for miscellaneous felonies and violations of the motor vehicle code in the warm weather months. The are of violations often simulates a thermometer of the weather.

The state motor vehicle department graphs reveal a recurrent increase in auto accidents, general law violations and violations of the motor vehicle code during these periods. A startling impact of auto collisions occurs annually with the first rains of fall that turn the collected oily grime of summer into a slick muck.

During the past 30 days the state Police made 1,088 arrests of persons who were trying to avoid paying for an operator's or chauffeur's license; 1,206 driving without a tall-light and 717 for improper use of license plates. Fines exacted for these three minor violations totaled $6,737.

In the column of fines collected those of drunken drivers invariably, lead, this time with $12,842, and 12 cases still pending.

During the past month approximately 255 state police spent 7,740 days on the road and afield, traveled 649,228 miles and made 4,688 arrests.

OREGON THE POLITICAL BEACON

Atlantic coast political columnists (with the Republican brand) are crediting Oregon with giving Tom Dewey what he needed to win the presidential nomination in 1948. Now they are saying Oregon has succeeded Maine as the national political weather-vane.

POLITICAL PIN-UPS

It became apparent here in Salem Monday why Steve Anderson, a Salem attorney, withdrew from his campaign as a delegate to the Young Republican national convention held in Boston last week, stayed home and by remote control threw a bombshell at Sen. Robert A. Taft's campaign for the Republican nomination for president.

Anderson, who is vice-chairman of the national federation of Young Republicans, two days later made the announcement that Wayne Morse, Oregon's junior senator in congress, is a candidate for the Republican nomination to the presidency.

In a front-page story in the Oregon Statesman, Salem, Anderson is quoted as saying, "There is a strong and growing group interested in his candidacy, and we plan to have a full ticket of Morse-for-president delegates in the primary election next spring."

"Senator Morse has informed us that if the liberal Republicans in Oregon want to get behind him for the presidency, it is all right with him, even though he said he might not have time to give much assistance."

In Washington, Morse said he is not a candidate and that his choice is General Dwight Eisenhower or Paul Hoffman (the former administrator of the Marshall aid plan).

Said Anderson, "There is no assurance now that Eisenhower will be a candidate. If he ever actually is, what a 'natural' an Eisenhower-Morse ticket would be!"

VAN DYKE WANTS EQUALIZED TAX

Frank Van Dyke, former speaker of Oregon's house of representatives and a delegation from Jackson, Josephine and Douglas counties appeared before the state tax commission this week seeking readjustment in the assessed valuation of the Southern Pacific railroad in this state that is used for tax purposes.

Van Dyke wants relief for the taxpayers of the three counties who, he asserts, are unjustly burdened by outmoded assessed valuations of the railroad.

"Southwestern Oregon has grown by leaps and bounds, much more so than other parts of the state and more railroad business originates along the expanse of the Siskiyou line than is created along the Cascade line going south through Klamath Falls," Van Dyke avers.

OUR DEMOCRACY

by Mat

A Declaration by the Representatives of the UNITED STATES

OF AMERICA OURS TO CARRY ON

When in the course of human events it becomes necessary for a people to dissolve the political bands which have connected them with another, and to assume among the powers of the earth the separate and equal station to which the laws of nature and of nature's God entitle them, a decent respect to the opinions of mankind requires that they should declare the causes

ONE HUNDRED AND SEVENTY FIVE YEARS AGO, 56 BRAVE MEN SIGNED THIS DECLARATION AND PLEDGED TO SUPPORT IT WITH THEIR LIVES, THEIR FORTUNES AND THEIR SACRED HONOR.

THAT VALIANT BAND NOT ONLY FOUNDED A NEW NATION, BUT BEQUEATHED TO US THE INDOMITABLE WILL, THE FEARLESS SPIRIT OF FREEDOM, THAT BURNED IN THEIR HEARTS AND THOSE OF THEIR COMPATRIOTS.

OUR NATION LIVES BECAUSE THE SPIRIT OF THE SIGNERS LIVES. "THE DAY WE CELEBRATE" SHOULD BE A DAY OF REDEDICATION TO THEIR IDEALS.

Locals

Mrs. Merle O'Dell returned to her home in Roseburg after helping Dr. Collman the past week.

Mr. and Mrs. Lew Krauss of Selma entertained guests for dinner at the Oregon Caves chateau Wednesday evening, June 27.

Not everyone goes to the beach, though. Mr. and Mrs. Keith Wells of Klamath Falls are "roughing it" in among the cool pines of Grayback camp. They were in the Valley for the Fourth celebration.

Mr. and Mrs. Art Cribb, who were married at the Oregon Caves in 1937 returned, as they have each year, for their anniversary dinner Monday evening, June 25. Accompanying them were Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Fessler and R. W. Crowley.

More Fourth of July visitors are Mr. and Mrs. Haskel Issenhut and children, Carol and Dennis, from Hollywood who are visiting Bob and Ruth Rausch.

Bill and Florence Varner and Mr. and Mrs. Philip Clarke took a trip up the coast to Gold Beach Sunday, July 1, and of course the weather was beautiful. The Varners were fishing over the Fourth at Brookings.

Ortis Seat and family, also Madame Mary Seat, spent a pleasant day last Saturday visiting the Alf Nelson family in Jacksonville, with a picnic at noon. Mr. Nelson had the misfortune last week to have his hands badly hurt while working in the timber.

Miss Myrna Jensen spent last week with the S. J. Hilliards and assisted in teaching Bible school during that time.

Mr. and Mrs. Jack Abernathy accompanied Mr. and Mrs. George W. Martin on a trip to Coos Bay over the weekend.

Joyce Collins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Louis Collins, spent Wednesday, June 27 with the Marvin Cross family.

Mrs. John Dow spent a part of last week in Medford, stopping at the Jackson hotel while having special treatment for her eyes, which are improving nicely.

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Bunch and Mrs. Bunch's mother, Mrs. Mattie Seyferth, recently returned from a trip to Pennsylvania where they visited friends. On the return trip, the travelers stopped at Toledo, Ohio, to see Edda Burke Ortman, formerly of Kerby.

Attending the state F. O. E. convention in Klamath Falls last week were Norma Tytheott, Mary Raines, Viola Towle, Norma Lee Jones, Kay Milligan, Nettie Gilliam, Mabel Capp and Ruth Rausch.

Dr. Marvin M. Prentice, formerly of Selma and now of Pullman, Washington, took as his bride Miss Barbara Bernice Johnson in a double-ring ceremony on June 17. The couple is honeymooning in California, and will make their home in Bend, Oregon.
