ASSEMBLY OF GOD

Rev. D. B. Wantland, pastor
C. A. service at 6:30 Sunday evening.

Sunday School begins promptly at 9:45 a. m.

Morning worship—11 a. m.
Evening evangelistic service—7:30 p. m.

Wednesday evening prayer meeting and Bible Study 7:30 p. m.
Choir practice will be held each Monday evening at 7:30. Gilbert Wantland is director.

Sunday school attendance was 119, with 18 in the young peoples' class. Gaylor Brown read the most Bible verses for the week, 48.

Pins awarded: Sister Plumlee, wreath; Wendell Lee, 400 point.

Birthdays were celebrated by Sister and Brother Owens and Katherine Wantland.

The Bible training class started last week with a good attendance of 24. Seven young people were in attendance. Some of the subjects to be studied are "the year of beginning," "why did John baptize with water," and "why did Jesus submit to water baptism?"

Pastor chose for the morning service the 18th chapter of Ezekiel, verses 4-20. The contents of the text were "Behold, all souls are mine; the soul that sinneth shall die." He also read from Exodus 12, verses 12 and 13.

A large group of men met at church on Tuesday evening and poured concrete for the new addition. The ladies served supper to them in the pastor's yard.

Christian Science Churches

"LOVE" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, August 5.

The Golden Text was, "Keep yourselves in the love of God, looking for the mercy of our Lord Jesus Christ unto eternal life" (Jude 1:21).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "Owe no man any thing, but to love one another; for he that loveth another hath fulfilled the law" (Rom. 13:8), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Universal Love is the divine way in Christian Science" (p. 266).

CATHOLIC CHURCH

CAVE JUNCTION COMMUNITY CHURCH

George H. Gray, Pastor
9:50 a. m. Sunday School.
11:00 a. m. Church service; and 7:45 p. m. Evening service and auditorium; and Junior and Intermediate group, Mrs. Sherier leader Junior church, Mrs. Etherton leader.

Rev. Gray spent the week in Portland attending a Camp meeting where he heard many fine addresses and speakers. He returned via Roseburg where he preached Sunday morning for a preacher friend, reaching home in time for his evening meeting.

In his absence, Arthur Drews had the morning service taking for his theme "Spiritual Gifts" and why they are given us, also stressing the thought of our Heavenly Home which has been promised to those who love Him and how we are making ready for them by our lives here, and our influence upon others.

J. Galland sang "It Is Well With My Soul" and Mesdames McDaniel and Drews sang a duet, "Have I Done My Best For Jesus?" Among other visitors were Dr. and Mrs. Custer who drove over from Klamath Falls, and were guests at the Gray home; Mesdames F. L. Wilcher and Vivian B. Deaton; Mrs. Jack L. Owen and Stevie; Mrs. Vern Cady and Carmelita Hussey and baby, and Darrell McGihon, all of Cave Junction.

The women's Missionary society will have their regular meeting August 15 at one o'clock in the church parlor with ladies of the Town Circle as hostesses. Some new ladies are to be introduced and an interesting program and discussion is scheduled. The work day will be resumed on the first Wednesday—in Sept. Please remember these dates. All women who are interested will be cordially welcomed.

Sunday School News

Sunday school attendance last Sunday was 133. The service opened with singing. A special number was led by Norma Martin, Sarah Hoskins and Carol Preston, with Lylabelle Cross playing the piano.

Birthdays were celebrated by Nancy Ehlers who is four years old. Next Sunday, August 1, Mrs. Lillie Peters will be 90 years young. Her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Burch, are holding open house from 2 to 8 p. m. for all friends who wish to drop in to wish her a happy birthday.

A report was given by Mrs. Hilliard on the Holy Land cruise contest. The Alpha's are leading, having traveled 67 days. The Omega's have only 65 days. There are still a few Sundays left of the contest. Everyone is requested to bring a guest.

The congregation all missed Rev. Gray last Sunday, even though they were glad that he could have a few days vacation. They are also glad to have Don Preston back in Sunday School after ten days away in the Forest Service.

Mrs. Carothers' class of boys were welcomed back in the class after two Sundays away at Scout camp.

Next Sunday, August 12, Rev. Paul O. Kroon, of Lostine, Oregon, will hold services at the Community church in the morning and evening.

Mae Bowerman left Thursday for Sherwood, Oregon to pick beans. She will stay with her aunt, Mrs. George Schroeder.

Mrs. William Holbrook of Hollywood is visiting for several weeks at the home of her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Proctor of Cave Junction.
