George H. Gray, Pastor

9:50 a.m. Sunday School.

11:00 a.m. Church service; and 7:45 p.m. Evening service and auditorium; and Junior and Intermediate group, Mrs. Sherier leader Junior church, Mrs. Etherton leader.

No birthdays were celebrated this week and due to the stormy day, the attendance was down somewhat but the clouds did not dampen the spirit. We were honored at the church service by having Miss Beulan Reitz from South Rhodesia, Africa, as the guest speaker. Miss Reitz, who has been a missionary in Africa for almost 30 years, used for the text, Isaiah 60, 1st verse: "Arise, shine, for thy light is come, and the glory of the Lord is risen upon thee;" showing in her message how the "Light of Love" dispels the darkness of superstition, hate and ignorance when the message of Jesus Christ is recognized and accepted. The high school choir, composed of Mae Boverman, Roberta Hilliard, Phyllis Dick, Marilyn Masters, Doug Hoskins, Don Preston, Larry Sanders and Stanley Dick sang "When the Roll is Called up Yonder." Much interest is being shown in both the junior and senior choirs under the capable leadership of Mrs. Frances Leinaehl.

A Christmas musical program is being planned for the Sunday evening preceding Christmas at his church.

The fellowship dinner which was held at the church on Friday was very well attended and was pronounced a most enjoyable evening by all those who were there. Simmie Hilliard as MC kept everyone happy either doing something or watching others; among the specialties was a quartet by the school teachers and a song in the African dialect by Miss Reitz. Space will not allow for telling all that went on but will say that here seemed to be plenty of pie to satisfy the hungry appetites even after the chicken dinner.

BRIDGEVIEW COMMUNITY CHURCH

J. M. Boss, pastor

Sunday school, 10 a. m.

Morning worship, 11 a. m.

Evening service, 8 p. m.

Sunday school attendance dropped this Sunday, but the percentage of Bibles was better than for some time. Deanna Pullen led in the review questions on the series of lessons on "The Gospel of Love," John's gospel. Three celebrated birthdays, Mrs. Milton Dunham, Mrs. Ellen Pullen and "Grandpa" Pullen, who was 70 years old last Thursday. Next Sunday there will be a special Thanksgiving lesson, with "Tom Turkey" as a feature "guest," whom you will want to meet, so be sure to be present. The sermon for the morning with Hebrews 10, 22 as a text, showed the necessity for a renewed spirit, a saved soul and a clean body, in order to come into the presence of a holy God. Roxie Looper sang "Ivory Palaces."

Please remember the "Singspiration" to be held here on the afternoon of November 18, when all the churches of the Valley will participate. Mrs. Don Mainwaring, from the Jerome Prairie church, has been asked to lead the congregational singing. Everyone is invited to this, another of the enjoyable "sings."

Last Tuesday, Mrs. Ina Yandell and Mrs. Doney Davis appeared at the parsonage with all the "fixins" for papering the bedroom and so they worked all day doing this very fine service for the minister and his wife. It is much appreciated. Mrs. Boss served them a nice lunch at the noon hour.

Another improvement at the Bridgeview church is the new roof on the church building. The spirit of love and-unity is growing day by day as a testimony to the Lord's spirit working among the people.

Ernest Dodd celebrated his seventh birthday. Pins were given to Stevie Murf, Marilyn Lee, Katherlyn Wantland, Sara Jean Weddy, Jerry Yandell, Frank Sullivant.

Brother Don Wantland and family were away at Corvallis so Brother Gilbert brought the message. His text was taken from John I, verse 36. The theme of his sermon was, That I Might See and Know Jesus.

Everet Devine, a missionary, held a meeting Tuesday night.

The work night at the church last Friday was very successful. Ladies furnished supper for workers who come directly from their day's work. Another will be held this Friday night. We are anxious to get the work done before cold weather sets in.

The Golden Text was, "Ye were sometimes darkness, but now are ye light in the Lord: Walk as children of light: . . . proving what is acceptable unto the Lord" (Eph. 5:8, 10).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "The law of the Spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death" (Rom. 8:2), together with the following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "Man is tributary to God, Spirit, and to nothing else" (p. 481).
