MISSIONARY SOCIETY NOTES

On Wednesday, January 16 at 1 p. m. the regular business meeting of the Women's Missionary society will be held in the Missionary room of the church. The annual election of officers will take place at this meeting, and all who are interested in the society are needed. A new year is starting under new circumstances in which we hope to further the work of the Lord, which means to obey his last command, "Go ye therefore, and teach all nations." Yearly report of each circle will be given also at this time.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

ASSURANCE that righteous prayer is answered was brought out in the Lesson-Sermon entitled "God," which was read in all Christian Science churches, Sunday, January 6.

Two verses from Jeremiah emphasized this theme: "... ye shall call upon me, and ye shall go and pray unto me, and I will hearken unto you. And ye shall seek me, and find me, when ye shall search for me with all your heart" (29:12, 13).

Selections from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy included "One infinite God, good, unifies men and nations; constitutes the brotherhood of man; ends wars; fulfills the Scripture, 'Love thy neighbor as thyself'; annihilates pagan and Christian idolatry,—whatever is wrong in social, civil, criminal, political, and religious codes; equalizes the sexes; annuls the curse on man, and leaves nothing that can sin, suffer, be punished or destroyed" (p. 340).

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Martin have been wishing that people would choose someplace other than their front yard to side-swipe and have wrecks. Mrs. Martin is still picking up the pieces from the last one which occurred Sunday, but is a little smug due to the fact that both parties involved were men drivers!

Rev. Paul Kroon, Pastor.

Sunday school, 9:50 a. m.
Church service, 11 a. m.
Evening service, 7:45 p. m.
Prayer meeting, Wednesday at 7:45 p. m.

Attendance was still down this Sunday on account of bad weather but there were visitors and one birthday celebrated, Gerald Gibbons. Mrs. Gray told an interesting missionary story about an ignorant Irish girl who started and maintained an orphanage under great difficulties, but at the first she took God as her partner and today the home, called Minfield Orphanage, is a fine monument to her courage. It is located in Alaska.

Rev. Kroon used Psalm 34 for the scripture responsive reading, and for his subject, "Looking Ahead." In preparing for a new look ahead we must first look backward to our first love, Christ the Saviour; outward to the mission fields where work needs to be done; inward to our hearts; unto Jesus whose help we always need and finally upward, for Christ's return. Mrs. Frances Reinach sang "Just a Closer Walk with Thee." Preceding the sermon, Mrs. Kroon told the children the always appealing story of "Barney's Barrel."

The evening subject was taken from Mark 10, 17-22, "One Thing Thou Lackest," concerning the rich young man who had kept all points of the law, but one thing was lacking, love for and willingness to follow the Saviour which meant selling all he had and giving to the poor. Otherwise how could he have eternal life? The public is invited to come and enjoy these song and gospel services.

A business meeting was held at the church on Monday evening, and many things were discussed and acted upon, especially the financial obligations of the church. It is hoped that more folks will be interested in this part of their Christian service and come on the first Monday of each month.

ASSEMBLY OF GOD

Rev. D. B. Wantland, pastor

C. A. service at 6:30 Sunday evening.

Sunday School begins promptly at 9:45 a. m.

Morning worship—11 a. m.

Evening evangelistic service — 7:30 p. m.

Wednesday evening prayer meeting and Bible Study 7:30 p. m.

Choir practice will be held each Monday evening at 7:30. Gilbert Wantland is director.

Sunday school attendance is still low. The superintendent brought out the fact that if the attendance doesn't get better the banner may be lost. The high school class had seven in attendance, some of their members have gone into the service. Virginia Fuller read the most Bible verses.

Birthdays were celebrated by Linda Marshall, Joan Yandell and Sammie Yarbrough.

The pastor chose for his text 26 chapter of Mathew. The subject was the Lord's supper. Jesus gave the disciples a charge for encouragement. Some of the sermon was taken from Corinthians, also on the Lord's supper.

There is to be a fellowship meeting at Jacksonville Monday, January 14 at 2:30 p. m.

Due to an oversight on the reporter's part, it was neglected to thank the C. G. and E. garage for the nice box of oranges they presented for the children at Christmas time. The children enjoyed them very much.

Prayer meeting Wednesday.

Many of the church members attended a Youths' Congress held in Medford January 5. The program started with Sabbath school at 9:30 a. m. and lasted until 8:30 p. m. Guest speakers at the congress were L. E. Biggs, president of the Oregon conference; L. A. Skinner, general conference associate M. V. secretary; G. W. Chambers, M. V. secretary North Pacific union; C. J. Ritchie, Sabbath school secretary of the Oregon conference, and A. J. Reisig, M. V. secretary of the Oregon conference.

The theme of the congress was on sharing your faith with friends and neighbors. One of the most impressive sermons on this topic was given when the young people were asked to form a line around the room and a torch, representing the light of truth was passed from hand to hand around the room. Elder Skinner told of many interesting experiences that had come to those who had attended the Youths' Congress in Paris, France.

Special music for the program was given by several members of Laurelwood academy.

Young masters need light PLANNED for seeing

Your youngster's eyes are precious. They're the only eyes he'll ever have to help his seeing through a busy life.

Protect those eyes in two ways:

- (1) Consult an eyesight specialist for a thorough check-up. Catch possible defects early.
- (2) Provide the kind of light that is PLANNED for seeing comfort.

Sounds easy? It is easy, today. Just call us for complete information on today's PLANNED Lighting. The service is free, of course.

Send for our booklet — "Eyes — Our Windows to the World." It's a complete story on light as it affects our seeing. It's free, of course.
