American Legion Activities

"The American Legion is chartered in congress for the good of the community, state and nation, so there are no ex-servicemen in the Legion — which means they are always in the service of their country," said Kenneth Deaton, commander of Glenn Morrison Post No. 70 this week.

"With this thought in mind, Glenn Morrison Post is thankful for the help and assistance it receives from all of the top civic-minded leaders in this community. In selection of their importance it is impossible to choose which program is most deserving," the Legion commander stated.

Deaton continued: "The Boy Scouts of America is considered the greatest youth organization in the world today. We therefore commend Troop No. 20 Chairmen Harold Bowerman, Arthur Kellert and Les Henry for their splendid support. Scoutmaster George Morey enjoys the distinction of winning the achievement award from the B.S.A. district council for bringing his troop up to the top ranking position in this district. Assistant Scoutmaster Ralph Huber is indispensable for his value to the troop. Scoutmaster Morey reports a few changes and additions will be added to the troop personnel in February, for the betterment of its present prestige. It is believed that Myron Terpening, Mel Rigdon and Les Basham will serve in some capacity for the coming year. Jess Martin has been acting as institutional representative in the past."

Mr. Deaton revealed that the oratorical contest for high school students has been termed one of the greatest weapons for fighting communism in the future generation. Richard Newman as chairman has enlisted the aid of Principal H. V. McAbee to incorporate this contest into his regular English classes at the high school. The Legion is very proud of this program and the consideration it has received is a compliment to its chairman.

Mason Ludwig as chairman of the Legion annual merit awards for grade school boys and girls will have this responsibility added to his other teaching duties at the Kerby grade school. The essay theme this year will be "What Does Old Glory Mean to Me." The value of patriotism is an attribute vital to the well being of our younger generation and cannot be over-estimated by the Legion.

The Glenn Morrison Post annual scholarship award will again be chairmaned by Principal H. V. McAbee, a comrade of the post whose value and guidance is deeply appreciated in the movement to secure World War II men as new blood and rejuvenation in future community activities of the post.

Deaton announced that Sports Chairman Ole Nassen will work in conjunction with Wesley Peters and Norman York in determining the winner of this year's cup. It makes no difference if you win or lose—it's how you do it that counts. This idea was presented by the chairman and immediately adopted for an annual sportsmanship award to encourage a broader aspect in ability and fair play. This is the first year for this program, but its acceptance and guidance in all probability is assured.

Beaver Boys' State was chairmaned last year by Tex Clifford, and will be chairmaned by Ole Nassen this year, leaving the high school faculty to pass final judgment. This is an opportunity to witness government proceedings that a candidate will never forget. For the good of the state and nation the Legion is thankful for this assistance to all the parties concerned.

The Legion Hoopster basketball team and Chairman Jack Loveday have earned a good reputation in the Southern Oregon Basketball circuit. Special acclaim is due this year because the team has suffered a loss in players to colleges and the armed forces.

To the rest of the committees and chairmen that were instrumental in keeping the Legion functioning in 1951 as a service organization, the commander offered his thanks. The appointments for 1952 were: house and dance committee (it took three to replace Les Henry), Harold Haslock, Clyde Hays and Ken Deaton; maintenance, Early Elmore; initiatory, Les Henry; rehabilitation, Elwood Hussey; refreshments, Tom White; membership, Charles Hubbard; graves registration, Hugh White; Americanism, Loyd Burnett, and child welfare, Vivian White.

Mr. Texas' To Show Here

Produced by Great Commission Films of Hollywood and directed by Dick Ross, the picture "Mr. Texas" stars Redd Harper and Lindy Walker, both former professional screen players who have given their lives and talents to Christian service.

The picture tells the story of Jim Tyler, a southwestern cowboy who wanted success above everything else, so that he might be known as "Mr. Texas." Oil wells, cattle raising and rodeo riding are all part of his climb to fame. Well on the road to success and recognition, he is angered when his sister becomes a Christian during the Billy Graham campaign in Fort Worth. A serious rodeo accident sends him to the hospital, and the resulting impact of the Christian message in his life has a strong appeal to the viewer.

Outstanding music plays an important part in the film, with George Beverly Shea and the 1,000 voice Crusade choir singing "The Railroad Song," "Wonderful Peace" and "Just a Closer Walk with Thee." New songs sung by Redd Harper and Cindy Walker include "Beloved Enemy" and "Wide Rollin' Plains," both written by Miss Walker, and "Each Step of the Way," written by Mr. Harper. The musical setting is provided by the Sons of the Pioneers, and the orchestral score is by Ralph Carmichael and a concert orchestra. The world famous Hardin-Simmons cowboy band is featured in the rodeo scenes.

The picture will be shown in Cave Junction at the American Legion hall on Sunday afternoon, January 20 at 3 p. m. The public is invited and there will be no admission charge. An offering will be taken at the close of the film for the Billy Graham evangelistic radio ministry.
