

Community Chorus News

The Illinois Valley Community chorus has started rehearsal on an Easter cantata to be presented for the public on Easter Sunday. It will be held at the Ivy theater.

Rehearsals are held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Spencer every Wednesday at 7:45 p. m. Anyone interested in singing with this group is invited to join.

The first performance of this group was at Christmas time, when "The Infant Holy" was presented at the Legion hall. All members of the chorus were gratified with the enthusiasm with which that program was received.

Frances Reinoehl is directing the group and Alberta Proctor is the accompanist. Names of the

ILLINOIS VALLEY NEWS
FRIDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1952

Mrs. Les Henry and Irene McCasland, representing the Legion Auxiliary went to Camp White Monday and distributed 300 bags of homemade candy among the veterans there. The candy was made by Auxiliary members.

Mrs. Henry received word that on February 11 her son, Ted Green Jr. will leave Japan after being stationed there for fifteen months. He was a metalsmith in the U. S. Navy, and is receiving a discharge.

Legion and Auxiliary News

Rev. Paul A. Kroon, pastor of the Cave Junction Community church gave a very inspiring sermon on why the nation needs "Spiritual Awakening."

Legionnaires and Auxiliary members who attended the "back to church" movement were Arthur Kellert, Harry Hartwell, Mr. and Mrs. Tex Clifford, Mr. and Mrs. Early Elmore and daughters Karen and Carol, Mr. and Mrs. Simmie Hilliard and daughter Roberta, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Haslock, Mr. and Mrs. Palmer Lovejoy, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Hays, Mr. and Mrs. Ken Deaton and daughters Moonyeen and Linda, Mrs. Daisy Nassen, Mrs. Shirley Wells, Mrs. Mae Salvage, Irene McCasland, Mrs. Hazel Henry and Mrs. Amy Hussey.

Other Legionnaires and Auxiliary members attended churches of their own choice in commemoration of "Go to Church Week."

The American Legion hopes that all of its members will get into the habit of attending church at least once a week for divine guidance in these troubling times.

From where I sit ... by Joe Marsh

Experienced Hand Wanted

Cappy Miller's back from visiting relatives and tells about a big snow storm that knocked out the electric power for miles around.

Naturally, the local power company was doing everything possible to restore service but folks kept calling in and one woman gave them a new twist.

"I don't mind not having lights," she grumbled, "but I've got 20 cows in my barn and they all have to be milked by machine. Nobody around here knows how to milk a cow by hand any more."

From where I sit, it's only too easy to forget how to do something—even as simple as milking a cow—if we don't keep at it. And that goes for practicing tolerance, too. Like forgetting our neighbor has a right to decide for himself whether or not to enjoy a temperate glass of beer. If we don't keep the other fellow's point of view in mind we're all liable to get "snowed under" by intolerance.

PLAN your lighting for ease in writing

Send for our booklet — "Eyes — Our Windows to the World." It's a complete story on light as it affects our seeing. It's free, of course.

Your eyes work hard when you write.

Protect them with light so that they can see easily and accurately. Be sure you have enough light of the right kind in the right place. Avoid dim lighting and harsh shadows in your seeing tasks. Have your lighting PLANNED by lighting experts so you won't have to guess.
