

Mrs. Mae Nevitt injured her back in a fall at her home Sunday evening.

Mrs. W. M. Hunt and twin sons are visiting her parents, the William F. Vanderwarkers of Cave Junction. At the close of her visit she plans to rejoin her husband, who is stationed at McChord field, near Tacoma.

Billy Sherier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Sherier, suffered with an ear-ache earlier in the week.

Jeanie Spence of San Francisco will be a house guest of Mr. and Mrs. Jim Akins of Cave Junction. Miss Spence arrived last Saturday and plans to be with the Akins' for two weeks.

Sure you've heard of hard-shelled Baptists and if this snow keeps up, there's lots of people who could use some sort of a shell. You are always welcome at the Baptist church. 44-ltc

Mrs. Jessie Voelker of Rockdale road is in the hospital for a few days.

Mrs. Vivian McDaniel of "Willadora" had as her house guest over the weekend her daughter, Mrs. Carol Longanecker of Grants Pass.

Mrs. Jacob Boss of Bridgeview returned home last Friday from Portland, where she had been visiting her son and family and seeing the new granddaughter. Since her return, she has been a victim of the flu but is improving.

Among the many others on the sick list this week were Mrs. James Racknor and Mrs. Grace Etherton.

The question is not always where do we stand, but rather in what direction are we going? Most people are carrying more luggage than they will ever get through the heavenly gates. You are welcome at the Baptist church. 44-ltc

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCH

"MY soul shall be joyful in the Lord: it shall rejoice in his salvation" (Ps. 35:9) was the Golden Text for the Christian Science Lesson-Sermon "Soul" for Sunday, February 17.

Among the citations read from the Bible by the Second Reader was the account in Matthew of the healing by Jesus of two blind men: "And when he was come into the house, the blind men came to him: and Jesus saith unto them, Believe ye that I am able to do this? They said unto him, Yea, Lord. Then touched he their eyes, saying, According to your faith be it unto you. And their eyes were opened" (9:28, 30).

The following correlative passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, was read by the First Reader: "Knowing that Soul and its attributes were forever manifested through man, the Master healed the sick, gave sight to the blind, hearing to the deaf, feet to the lame, thus bringing to light the scientific action of the divine Mind on human minds and bodies and giving a better understanding of Soul and salvation" (p. 210).

ASSEMBLY OF GOD

Rev. D. B. Wantland, pastor. C. A. service at 6:30 Sunday evening.

Sunday School begins promptly at 9:45 a. m.

Morning worship—11 a. m. Evening evangelistic service—7:30 p. m.

Wednesday evening prayer meeting and Bible Study 7:30 p. m. Choir practice will be held each Monday evening at 7:30. Gilbert Wantland is director.

Attendance last Sunday was 79. There were seven in the junior high class and six in the senior high class. Leslie Martin read the most Bible verses. Sister Ethel Jacobs led the CA's in the evening.

The congregation missed Sister Wantland, who is visiting friends in Trail.

The choir was led by Ethel Jacobs.

Brother Wantland chose his sermon from Ephesians, fourth chapter.

Many of the congregation were suffering from colds, and special prayer was offered for their recovery. Song service was announced for Selma in the afternoon.

CAVE JUNCTION COMMUNITY CHURCH

Rev. Paul Kroon, Pastor.
Sunday school, 9:50 a. m.
Church service, 11 a. m.
Evening service, 7:45 p. m.
Prayer meeting, Wednesday at 7:45 p. m.

Attendance this week was 155, and a gift was promised to the one who brings the most new pupils next Sunday. Bonita Faye Robinson, Linda Deaton, Norma Martin and little two-year old Bobbie Martin celebrated birthdays. Philip Kellar was introduced as a visitor. The teacher training course for Sunday school teachers from all churches in the Valley was announced for Thursday night, February 21, to continue twice monthly for about three months. All those interested in teaching are urged to attend this course, which will be taught by Rev. Paul Kroon at the Community church.

The subject of the sermon was "Assurance of Salvation," with scripture text taken from 2 Timothy 1-12. The choir sang "I'm Praying for You" and by request Elaine Kroon sang "No Other Name." Following the evening service, the young peoples' group was entertained at the parsonage.

Much interest is being shown in the Wednesday evening Bible study class, where questions may be asked about matters which bother one, and help can be given.

YOUNG PEOPLES' MEETING

Sunday evening the newly started young peoples' meeting began at 6:30 with Mildred Beard in charge and approximately 18 young people in attendance.

Mae Bowerman told of a missionary who went to spread the gospel to African Indians, and Roberta Hilliard spoke concerning the worth of missions and the need of consecrating our lives to God's work.

Following church services, the group had a social get-together at the Kroon residence, where refreshments of cocoa, fudge and sandwiches were served, and everyone had a good time.

All young people who are not attending another church are welcome to come to these young peoples' meeting and all other Community church services.

BRIDGEVIEW COMMUNITY CHURCH

J. M. Boss, pastor
Sunday school, 10 a. m.
Morning worship, 11 a. m.

There were 26 in Sunday school and two boys celebrated birthdays. Courtney Delliter and Steve Draves, Dorothy Sloan led in the memory verse review and with the aid of scripture strips, placed by Deanna Pullen, the memory verse John 8-12 for this week was learned; "I am the light of the world: he that followeth me shall not walk in darkness but shall have the light of life." Ellen Pullen read the 9th chapter of John as Mrs. Boss gave the application by flannelgraph.

Next Sunday recognition will be given those who have completed three months of perfect attendance, and also who have been in one hundred percent attendance since October. The evening services were held at the parsonage.

FIRST BAPTIST CHURCH of Cave Junction

Sunday school, 10 a. m.
Morning worship, 11 a. m.
Place of meeting, American Legion hall.

Attendance at Sunday school continues to grow and interest is running high. Everyone is anticipating the arrival of the day when Cave Junction will have a Baptist church instead of a mission as at the present time. Visitors included Mrs. Carlson and two sons of Grants Pass, Rev. and Mrs. Troy Kelly and daughter of Fruitdale, Rev. and Mrs. Perry Johnson of Medford, and Rev. Don Bowers of Merlin. The junior class is showing a lot of friendly rivalry in learning the books of the Bible. Everyone in the class had learned the group assigned for last week and knew how many chapters in each book.

Rev. Bowers led the song service and Rev. Johnson brought the message. Rev. Kelly and Rev. Bowers sang a duet which was well received.

Immediately following the service a discussion was held regarding business matters of the church. One worthwhile project which was discussed was pledging to either furnishing a room or furnishing the first linen for the new hospital in Cave Junction. It was decided to ask the hospital board which was the most needed.

Next Sunday the services will be held at the usual hour and Rev. Don Bowers will preach. The Men's Brotherhood of the Temple Baptist church in Medford is expected to be here. Meeting place is the Auxiliary room of the American Legion hall.

On March 2 there will be a fellowship dinner for all Baptists and their friends who are interested in the activities of the Baptist church in this Valley. All churches in the Siskiyou association have been invited. This no doubt will be the outstanding event in the history of the Baptist people here since they formed the mission less than a year ago.

CAVE JUNCTION CHURCH of SEVENTH DAY ADVENTISTS

Sabbath School ..... 9:30
Church service ..... 11:00
Prayer meeting Wednesday.

Don Gray, pastor.
The Sabbath school opened as usual at 9:30, with Brother Johnson in charge. Forty-seven persons including the visitors were present for the morning service.

Brother Delbert Hill was ordained as a local elder by Pastor Don Gray before the church service.

"How many rock the boat of their Christian experience," was the question asked by Elder Gray. His subject was on the two kinds of faith needed to be saved. They are to believe that God is and that He is able to care for us no matter what comes. The only way to obtain this kind of faith in God is to have a faith in God like a child has faith in his parents.

Signs foretelling the coming of the last days was the central theme brought out at the Missionary volunteer meeting in the afternoon. There was a special song by Jeanenne and Jeanette Elliott and Carolyn Kamberg. They sang "Sing the Wondrous Lore of Jesus."

In the evening the young people attended a social at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Paul Kamberg and family.

CATHOLIC CHURCH

Father Kelley.
Held in the Catholic Chapel located on the Redwood highway, across from the Ranger station.
Second and fourth Sundays at 12 o'clock.

LOCALS

Capt. and Mrs. Roy P. Myers visited the William F. Vanderwarker family of Cave Junction for four days last week after returning from a two and one-half year tour of duty in Germany. The Myers' left here for Georgia, where the captain will attend a service school before reassignment. Also visiting at the Vanderwarker home were Mr. Vanderwarker's cousin and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. George Smith of Spokane. The two cousins had not seen each other for 25 years.
