Fascinating Fashions

By Judy Seaton

A flared skirt of gleaming white felt, dramatized with an inset of inky black lace—a cinched-in waist—topped off with a decollete blouse of black jersey are the ingredients for a perfect holiday outfit... and one which you can wear right on through the year. Add elbow-length gloves and a three-strand-length choker for a soigne effect. Virginia Kaye, leading lady on CBS's daytime serial, "Rosemary," points out that there is no outfit more comfortable or appropriate for country weekends, at-home entertaining or for "a party for two" in front of a roaring fire.

Virginia, a tall, well-proportioned girl with red-gold hair, loves nothing better than an excuse to really dress up. She chooses a gown like the one illustrated above, which is equally flattering to the tall, slender girl or the "petite" type of small girl. Its tight fitting bodice is glamorous satin and its voluminous skirt is layers and layers of filmy tulle. A stiff crinoline underskirt contributes its share to the ultra-feminine, billowing effect. A crinoline of net, with a firmer rigidity, is preferable to a less sturdy underskirt, since the heavy satin needs support.

Soil Conservation District
Plans Dance And Social

It was announced this week that a benefit dance and box social will be held in the American Legion hall on Saturday, March 29 by the Illinois Valley Soil Conservation district for the purpose of raising funds for office rent and other administrative expenses of the district.

According to Chairman Tex Clifford, admission will be "one dollar and a box lunch."

P.T.A. Valentine Dance

Queen of Hearts Treva Lee Allen and her king, Warren Cook, reigned over a happy crowd on February 15 at the high school gym. The occasion was the second annual Valentine dance sponsored by the High School Parent-Teachers association, and the various committees report that everyone had a grand time. The gym was beautifully decorated in the Valentine theme.

This dance is given each year by the P.T.A. as its major fund-raising project, and the money is used to further P.T.A. objectives.

The King and Queen of Hearts are elected by popular vote of their classmates and parents. This year's king and queen were chosen from the sophomore class, the same class that last year elected Bob Kester and Mae Bowerman as king and queen from the freshman class.

Dance committees and P.T.A. officers join in extending their thanks to each one who helped make this year's dance such a success.

Kerby PTA Meeting Held

The regular meeting of Kerby P.T.A. was held February 14. This was the annual Founders day program. President Margaret Crowl read the P.T.A. pledge and aims of the organization. The oak tree is the symbol.

Mrs. Rigdon, the Cub scoutmaster spoke on scouting, which is sponsored by the organization.

Art work from Mrs. Sanders' Mrs. Cribb's and Mrs. Maguire's classes were put up for inspection by the parents.

The Country Fair will be held April 11 and there will be a poster contest among the classes again this year.

The program was a patriotic one. Mrs. Erickson's class sang patriotic songs and Mrs. Eastman's class gave skits on Abraham Lincoln and George Washington.

The next meeting will be March 11, and an executive meeting will be held March 4.

FRENCH LAUNDRY
GRANTS PASS

Unusual requests seldom face CARE personnel. They've followed donors' orders to deliver packages to needy recipients in such categories as "a red-headed postman on a rural route in Northern Scotland" and "an Italian folk dancer who likes to dance the Neapolitan tarantella." But a Long Island mechanic caused a flurry when he asked CARE to find a deserving French mademoiselle for him to marry. CARE's explanation that it deals in packages, not wives, left him undaunted. He replied by ordering a $10 food parcel to go "to a virtuous French lady... tall and slender... between 25 and 35." CARE promised only to deliver the gift to a reasonable facsimile of that description. Any further developments were left strictly up to Cupid.

DELIVERED WITH CARE: A 10 coal package is available for Austria and Western Zones of Germany (not Berlin). Indonesia is now open to gifts of new American scientific, technical or children's books through the CARE-UNESCO Book Funds... The 18.75 "Holiday" Package, featuring a whole turkey, is being continued as a "special occasion" gift.

For Distinguished Service CARE nominates the men of the U.S. Navy destroyer Hawkins. Moved by the suffering children they have seen throughout the world, they sent $50 worth of CARE packages to Greece, Holland, Belgium and Italy... Final tally on the recent general Federation of Women's Club's "CARE-for-Korea" Campaign was $360,000, for 30,000 civilian relief packages.

THEY NEED CARE NOW: Austerity-rattled, meat-hungry Britons and Israelis... Iron Curtain refugees in Western Germany. In Berlin alone, arrivals from the east zone average 4,500 a month. Drought-stricken villagers in India, which is threatened with a 1952 food crisis worse than last year's... South Korean war orphans and refugees, whose plight remains desperate... To send help and hope, just mail your order. CARE does the rest. That's CARE, 20 Broad St., New York 5, N.Y., or your local CARE office.
