The Bridgeview Community church has been enjoying a new type of service on Sunday mornings since March 1, called a unified service. Starting at 10 a. m. with a forty minute worship service, including a devotional message by the pastor that supplements the following Sunday school lesson. Then following without a break is the Sunday school program, concluding at 11:30.

This week Mr. Boss compared the reception of Christ by five characters mentioned in John 12: 1-22, and concluded that all follow in one of these receptions of the Lord Jesus Christ and where we stand accordingly. There were 42 present.

Mr. Boss celebrated a birthday, and the group lustily sang "Happy Birthday" to him.

The Sunday school lesson was a continuation of the series of flannelgraph lessons on the Gospel of John.

Competition is at a high ebb on memorization of Bible verses, which at the termination of this series of study will award the adults Schofield Bibles and the boys and girls summer camp. Much approval has been given of this new type of service and everyone is invited to visit and enjoy them.

The Bridgeview Community church extends a hearty welcome to the Junior Garden club of Cave Junction and appreciation to the Senior Garden club members, who have furnished shrub and plant cuttings for the landscaping work to be planned and done by the Junior club members as their spring project, beginning Thursday, March 20 if the weather permits.
