

F. O. E. Activities

One of the most important meetings of the year will be the regular meeting of March 28, at which nominations for all officers will be open and accepted. Election of officers to serve for the ensuing term will be held April 4.

It will require many long hours to recondition and repair the recently purchased building to make an aerie home, and all members have been asked to bring whatever tools they can and turn out for the weekend repair sessions.

New Business In C. J.

A new business, the Decorators' Supply, opened in Cave Junction on March 15. The establishment, owned and managed by Mr. and Mrs. Duke DuBerke, carries a complete line of paint products, wall paper and decorators' accessories.

The grand opening last Saturday was highlighted by refreshments and gifts for everyone.

Mrs. Al Weber was a caller at the Ervin Ellis home one day last week.

Special A.C.W.W. Meeting

The Illinois Valley H.E.U. met on March 11 at the home of Mabel Ramsey in Kerby. The many members attending were in a happy St. Patrick's mood and all enjoyed the luncheon. Mabel set a beautiful table with an "Irish" centerpiece, and some of the salads and desserts were in keeping with the "wearing of the green."

After a busy business meeting, Rizpah Douglas, the county agent, gave some ideas for "storage space." She discussed the use of space to the best advantage in either old or new homes.

A special A.C.W.W. meeting will be held at Sophia Bunch's home at Bridgeview on March 23 at 10:30 a. m.

City Council Meeting

men who owned the adjacent lot, and the city felt it had made a good bargain in deeding over the land and thus discharging the debt of $213.50 in back taxes.

In concluding the meeting, the mayor appointed Jim Champion as a member of the budget board and stated that the council will meet every Monday night between now and June 15 to help prepare a budget. He repeated that the council is anxious to have the help of the citizenry in preparation of the budget, and renewed his invitation to everyone to attend the meetings.

Jr. Women's Club News

The regular meeting of the Junior Women's club was held at the home of Margaret Nowak on March 7. Guests of the evening were Mesdames Ina Yandell and Marline Slack.

Speaker of the evening was Mrs. Ruby Gass, state chairman of the Josephine County Accident survey. She was accompanied by Mrs. Edna Blacksmith, chairman of the home safety program for the Grants Pass Junior Women's club.

Mrs. Mildred Gammel was appointed chairman of the Valley's Junior Women's club safety program.

Hostesses of the evening were Mesdames Millie Petsch, Mildred Gammel and Margaret Nowak.

The next meeting will be held at the residence of Mrs. Doris Beauvais on March 21.

Jr. Women's Garden Club

The regular meeting was held at Rachel Foster's, March 13. The hostess was Evelyn Pamarlee.

Program Chairman Arlene Hadley read "Now is the time," and talked more on roses and the pruning of them.

Each woman brought a cake. These were auctioned off and the proceeds will go to the older women's garden club.

On March 20 the members will go to the Bridgeview Community church and landscape the yard. The executive meeting will be held at Helen Looper's on April 1 at 10:30 a. m.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Ina Yandell on April 10. Each member is to bring a wrapped gift.
