GAA Plans Overnight Camping Trip

The Girl's Athletic Association is planning an overnight camping trip to the coast Saturday and Sunday, May 17 and 18.

Miss Peterson, Miss Hosely and several of the girls' mothers are driving their cars and acting as chaperones.

All girls who have paid their dues and wish to, may go. Miss Peterson and Pat Wright are working hard planning transportation and entertainment.

Senior Announcements Have Arrived

The Senior graduation announcements arrived April 7 and are now being purchased during the noon hour by the Seniors. They were received at this early date because commencement services are planned for June 5.

Drivers Training Taught in Shop

In shop there are many different articles built. Such things as bookcases and lamps. The Kelt Chevrolet Co. gave the auto mechanics an old '36 Chevrolet to take apart and put together again. Under the heading of shop comes drivers training. There are two classes a day. Drivers training teaches the students to be better drivers and better citizens.

Biology Class to Make Outdoor Study

The students of Miss Peterson's biology class have started studying the plant kingdom, having just finished a study of the animal kingdom. Miss Peterson reports they are planning to collect wild

by Mrs. Fritz Krauss
Ph. Selma 621

SELMA— Different ways of preparing low cost meats was demonstrated by Ruby and Jane Riggan at the last D.C.D. meeting which was held at the home of Amy Conger. The following officers were elected for the new year, chairman, Amy Conger, vice-chairman, Floe Sandell; secretary, Jane Riggan and treasurer, Ruby Riggan. The next meeting will be May 15, at the home of Thelma Blue, and will be a lesson on "Family Life" given by the agent, Rizoph Douglas.

Taking part in the special musical program at the Selma church April 13 were Dean Warren, JoAnn Taylor, Claire Cooper, Loujannah Hamilton, and Mr. and Mrs. Douglas Field. Mrs. Oliver Smith played an accordion solo, Mrs. Gordon White was accompanist.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold Brewer and son Michael of Astoria have been here visiting the John Brewers and other relatives. Mrs. Brewer and son are going to Compton, California, to be with her parents while Harold is attending school at the Great Lakes Naval Base. He is an electrician in the Navy.

Mrs. Lewis Hammer spent a week in Portland recently visiting her daughter, Louise. Mr. Hammer went up to accompany her home; they made the trip by plane.

Mrs. Bill Tolin and son Billy have gone to Southern California for an extended visit.

O'BRIEN
GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

LOWER GRADES HAVE EASTER PARTY

The first and second grade fashioned Easter baskets from colored crepe paper and cheese cartons. Along came Sharon Goss, Connie Hiatt and Judy McLendon with cookies and candy to help the Easter Rabbit fill the baskets. To the tune of Karen Preston's "Here Comes Peter Cottontail" the little folks looked behind every bush and tree until each found his own basket.

STOREKEEPER FOR WEEK

Bobby Prather is our only storekeeper for this week with a perfect score—100.

NEW BOY IN SCHOOL

We wish to welcome Denny Campbell to the O'Brien third grade. He has come from Washington with his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Bartlett who are going to take over Bills Cafe.

INDOOR EASTER EGG HUNT

An indoor Easter Egg hunt was enjoyed by the third and fourth grades. A prize was given to Gilbert Smith who found the most eggs; one was also given to Bobby Perry who didn't find any.

3RD AND 5TH HAVE NEW STUDENTS

The third and fifth grades each have a new student. Janice Berry in the third and sister Glendyee in the fifth.

EASTER STORY TOLD WITH POSTERS

The fifth and sixth grades made four Easter posters of cut paper, each telling an important part of the Easter story. These were displayed following a movie. Four girls told the story to go with each picture; the girls were Starla Floyd, Karen Kull, Linda Marshall, and Alice Nunemaker.

NEW SWINGS

The whole school is almost standing on each others shoulders waiting for a turn at the new swings.

DOROTHY LOVEJOY WITH WACS IN JAPAN

PFC Dorothy Lovejoy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P.G. Lovejoy, Cave Junction, is serving as a medical technician at the U. S. Army hospital, Camp Yokohama, Japan. She has been in the Women's Army Corps two years.
