IV Gets Cellar Baseball Spot

Trounce Eagle Point; Lose to Sutherlin

FINAL J-D-J LEAGUE STANDINGS

Team	Wins	Losses
Myrtle Creek	6	2
Crater	5	3
Sutherlin	4	4
Eagle Point	3	5
Illinois Valley	2	6

Defending J-D-J baseball champs, the IVHS Cougars wound up league play last week with a win and a loss to be shoved into the cellar position for the 1952 season.

A 13-4 trouncing of Eagle Pt. on the local diamond Friday and a 5-4 beating from Sutherlin there Saturday gave the local boys a two-win, six-loss record for the season's league play. Faring somewhat better for all 11 games played, the local nine won five and lost six for the season's total.

Eagle Point started the Friday game off with a bang hitting IVHS pitcher Pickle for three runs in the first inning. The local boys retaliated with six runs to take the lead for the remaining six innings.

The Cougars rounded the scoring out with four more runs in the fourth and three in the fifth. The Eagle Point boys sneaked only one remaining player across home plate in the fourth.

IVHS hitting was well scattered with Tyler getting two, and Campbell, McEntire, Pickle, Maurer and Yandell getting one each.

Reinoehl was the losing pitcher in the Sutherlin contest allowing four hits. IV hit the opposing hurler for three hits, making them count for four runs, all in the fourth. Pickle, Campbell and Tyler each hit one for IVHS.

Clean-Up Day for Cemetery Saturday

Laurel Cemetery "clean-up day" is scheduled for May 24 and 25 in preparation for Memorial Day.

Clyde Hayes, sexton for the Laurel Cemetery Association urges all those in the Valley who hold property in the cemetery to turn out for the clean-up. Anyone having an interest in this civic project is invited to assist.

Pickups or light trucks will be needed to haul cans and debris from the grounds.

The Illinois Valley Garden club is donating a day this week for the work. Scoutmaster George Morey will have members of Troops 20 and 70 on hand to assist with the clean-up.

Frosh Take Big City Boys 6-4

The frosh of IVHS showed promises of good things to come in downing the Grants Pass high nine 6-4 in Grants Pass Wednesday afternoon.

Sanders pitched a 4-hit ball, aiding his own cause with one single for the game. Other hitters included Bolinger with a triple, Terrel, a double, and Marchant and Bliss with singles.

Wes Peters' charges started their scoring in the first inning with one getting across, followed in the fifth with four runs.

The Grants Pass boys managed two runs in the fourth, one each in the sixth and seventh innings.

Burning on State Land Now Requires Permit

The state fire season opened last Thursday, May 15, according to the Kerby Guard station.

All burning on state protected land now requires a burning permit from the Kerby office, Ph. 1611.

The Kerby Guard station will be closed May 21-23 for fire school. The Grants Pass office can be contacted if necessary.

NEWS to Publish Early Next Week

With Memorial Day falling on Friday the 30th, the Illinois Valley News will publish Wednesday evening, a day earlier because of the lack of Friday mail delivery.

Correspondents and those submitting news for next week's issue are warned to get all news into the NEWS office Monday and Tuesday, as the deadline will of necessity have to be moved to Tuesday noon.

'Silver Anniversary' Theme Is Feature Of IV Garden Club Show Thursday, 29th

"Silver Anniversary" will be the theme of the Illinois Valley Garden Club's annual Flower Show this coming Thursday, May 29, at the Masonic hall, Kerby.

Opening at 10 a.m. and closing at 9 p.m., the free show is non-competitive and the public is invited to enter arrangements in any of the five sections.

A silver tea will be held during the afternoon for the benefit of the Garden Club's building fund. Plants and homemade candy will be on sale. Visitors will have a chance to purchase flower displays at the close of the show for use on Memorial Day.

The theme this year is in celebration of the club's 25th anniversary. Only the second show the club has sponsored since the war, the wild flower displays at the pre-war events brought botanists and flower enthusiasts from as far as Canada. The displays this year will serve an educational purpose as well as decorative in teaching the ways to preserve the Oregon wild flowers.

Schedule for the exhibit will be: Arrangements, chairman, Mrs. Harry Smith; featuring song titles; in a teapot; in an antique container; miniatures (not to exceed 6 inches in dimension); in a natural wood container; and twin arrangements.

Specimen class, chairman, Mrs. Harry Smith; iris; and peonies. Shadow boxes, chairman, Mrs. J. J. Villair.

Potted plants, chairman, Mrs. Lew Krauss. Wild flower display, chairman, Mrs. George Thrasher.

General chairman for the event are Mrs. Clay Ramsey, Mrs. Sam Bunch and Mrs. George Webb.

Decorations chairman is Mrs. Ernest Krauss.

Local Troops Take Part in Boy Scout Circus

Thirty scouts from Troops 70 and 20 traveled to Medford to participate in the annual Boy Scout Circus May 17.

Over 1500 Scouts, Cubs and Explorer Scouts from Southern Oregon and parts of California took part in the event, each troop presenting a special seven-minute act.

The local troops put on a tumbling act and a "Pony Express" act.

Mr. Merle Preston, scoutmaster for Troop 70 accompanied the boys, with the American Legion providing transportation for the group. "The Scouts are grateful to the Legion for their assistance with the transportation problem," Mr. Preston said.
