

Whether you crave a coat with flattering princess lines; a loose, flowing one, or a demurely fitted one with a voluminous skirt, you'll be in style this Spring. Never before have coat fashions offered such a variety of styles.

One of the spring favorites is the buttoned-up-the-front, graceful coat with a fitted bodice and soft, sloping shoulders (left) and it's so feminine and flattering in silks, failles and tissue wools. "And," as Virginia Kaye, leading lady on CBS's daytime serial, "Rosemary," practically points out, "this coat can do double duty this season. Don't you now, add a gray scarf or a bright flower and wear it as a dress under your heavier coat. Later on, it becomes a coat, worn over your most colorful dresses."

With this season's crinoline petticoats and billowy skirts, you'll love the full-length coat with back fullness gently draped, push up sleeves and a rounded or dropped shoulder line. Virginia has found that for a busy actress there is no more practical, all-purpose coat than a dark colored coat with simple lines and hand detailing, but which can be dressed up for evening with the addition of a scarf and accessories.

Some 70 boats will be entered in competition in 9 races for class B and D hydros, B and D utilities and B and D runabouts. A special feature of the day's events will be a women's B-combined stock outboard race, second of its kind to be held in Oregon. A boat parade and selection of a Queen will start the festivities Thursday night, July 3.

DON'T LET

YOUR

WATCH

GRIND

ITSELF

DEATH

Is your watch grinding its life away—through your neglect? Even the finest timepiece should be oiled, checked and cleaned once a year by a skilled jeweler. Oils on the jeweled moving parts dry up if not renewed, and the resulting friction can mean loss of accuracy, breakdowns and a much shorter life for your watch. Why not bring your watch into our expert watch care and repair department today? Our moderately-priced servicing can save you costly repairs later on.

And when you stop in, look over our complete selection of watches by Croton and other fine makers. Whether you want a magnificent diamond watch or the latest development in a self-winding or waterproof watch you'll find you've come to the right place for the right watch at the right price.
