Local Man Held In Shooting

A Cave Junction logger is being held in the county jail in connection with the shooting of a man who replaced him at his job early in May.

Charged with the shooting is Albert L. Weldon, 49, who was arrested by the California Highway Patrol and returned to Grants Pass to be held on a $1,500 cash bail. Bert Littlefield, also of Cave Junction, is the complainant.

According to Sheriff Lloyd Lewis, Weldon was replaced as head of a logging crew by his father, owner, of Medford. Following his discharge, Weldon appeared on the job drunk when the crew arrived the following morning and in a scuffle shot the new boss, Littlefield, in the arm with a .22 rifle.

Weldon waived extradition when captured in California and was returned to Grants Pass by a member of the sheriff's department. The bullet in Littlefield's arm was removed by surgery.

New Family in Valley

Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Smith and family, Rudie, Darrell, Dolores, Larry and Donnie, have arrived from Victor, Montana, to make their home here. Mr. Smith is to be associated with Clyde Knight in his gravel business. The family have moved into the former Sanders home on Old Stage road.
