

SHOW REVUE

SATURDAY
"Oh! Susanna" tells of a bitter feud between Cameron and Tucker. Both have romantic sights set on Miss Booth, who portrays Lia Wilson, singer in a gambling house. Cameron plays Web Calhoun, a Cavalry captain and West Point graduate and Tucker is his commander.

SUNDAY and MONDAY
The "African Queen" is one of the season's most entertaining and outstanding films. It has a warmth of humanity that wins audience sympathy and admiration. The fine acting of Katherine Hepburn and the humorous slant Humphrey Bogart gives to his role never let attention and interest lag a moment.

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY
America—North, South, East, and West, its farmlands and factories, its churches and schools, its citizens of varied extractions—is the hero of M-G-M's stirring picture, "Its a Big Country."
Also showing Rex Allen in "Under Mexicali Stars"

THURSDAY and FRIDAY
"The Barefoot Mailman" is a story about Florida when it was wilder than the west ever thought of being. And it introduces the funniest, most fascinating screen character you've met in a blue moon.
