Attends Lions Cabinet Meeting

Charles A. Hubbard attended a cabinet meeting called by Lions club District Governor, Gunnar Wohlgren, at the Redwoods Hotel in Grants Pass Sunday. Hubbard is zone chairman of the Lions.

Move Into Cave Junction

The new high school principal, W. D. Barnes, Mrs. Barnes and Carol and Billy are moving into the former McAbee home on Caves Ave. this week.

"Button, Button..."

When Mr. and Mrs. Hai McAbee unlocked their new front door in Eugene, confidently expecting their furniture had arrived ahead of them, they were amazed to find an empty house. A bit of sleuthing discovered the furniture stacked in the garage. The key "Mac" had given the movers fitted only the garage door!

Return to Riverside

Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Wells left for their home in Riverside, Calif., Tuesday. Mrs. Wells will return about the 15th and will accompany her mother, Mrs. John Milburn, when she leaves later in the fall to visit her sister and husband, Rev. and Mrs. Crutchfield, of Phoenix, Ariz. Two brothers of Mrs. Milburn's, Rev. L. W. Neff of Georgia and J. R. Neff of Calif., will join her in Phoenix for a family reunion.

Mrs. Kern Drown and her two daughters, Mercedes of Cave Junction and Anna Jane who is employed in the U. S. National Bank, Grants Pass, left Saturday for Glendale, Calif., to visit a third daughter of the Drowns, Glenna. They will return next week.

SHOW REVUE

SATURDAY

Paramount's "Silver City" is a sizzling adventure drama chronicling the greed, treachery and violence that made life in the mining regions of the Old West so eventful. Filmed in Technicolor in the High Sierras, this handsomely mounted production stars Edmond O'Brien, Yvonne De Carlo, Barry Fitzgerald, and Richard Arlen.

SUNDAY and MONDAY

A fascinating chapter in the life of Hollywood in unfolded in the new Technicolor musical "Singin' in the Rain." It is Hollywood during the fabulous twenties—Hollywood during the transition from silents to talkies—the Hollywood of flappers, the Charleston and the few who claimed that talkies would never last and the many who proved they were here to stay.

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

"Honeychile" has Judy Canova, a queen of the cowgirls in a small Wyoming town, writing a letter to a New York song publisher asking for information about a song she had submitted a year before. After a lengthy search turns up the manuscript, Judy has reasons for not wanting it published at all. Also showing is "Quebec" starring John Barrymore, Jr. and Corinne Calvet.

THURSDAY and FRIDAY

"Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs," Walt Disney's feature-length picture presents action against the backgrounds of forests, castles, wild mountain areas and in the quaint woodland cottage of the Seven Dwarfs.
