

Elk Creek Man Bags Buck

Mrs. Helen Bottel
(Leave News at O'Brien Store)

O'BRIEN—Roy Watson of Elk Creek bagged his buck at Hornbrook. As far as this correspondent can ascertain, however, most deer hunters are not eating venison this year. Should any lucky gunster wish his name in the paper, please send visible proof—backstrap preferred.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Carl Preston of the O'Brien store this week are Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Smith and daughter and Don LaHeureux of Los Angeles.

Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Hunter and daughters left Saturday for a two-week vacation with Mrs. Hunter's relatives in Texas. Mr. Hunter is employed at Moore's New Mill.

Initiation, Zone Reports At Eagles Tonight

A zone convention of the Fraternal Order of Eagles was held in Grants Pass Saturday and Sunday, Sept. 26 and 27, and was attended by a delegation from the Oregon Caves Aerie and Auxiliary.

Initiation is scheduled for tonight's (Friday) regular meeting of the Eagles at their hall in Kerby. Reports of the convention will be given at that time also.

A new orchestra, obtained from the Medford Eagles, will play for the Eagles-sponsored dance this Saturday at the Bridgeview Grange hall. Additional details are furnished in an advertisement elsewhere in this issue of the NEWS.

Return Via Crater Lake

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Abbey and niece Darlene Nelson went to Klamath Falls Saturday, returning home by way of Crater Lake Sunday.

O'BRIEN GRADE SCHOOL NEWS

HANDWRITING FUROR

One purpose is in mind for the third grade in changing from printed writing to cursive writing legibility.

We are making many mistakes. Each day we make fewer.

Marked improvement has been shown by Lee Caynor, Daniel Hovanski, Judy McLendon, Karen Preston and Bonnie Marshall.

NEW GAME WITH GLOBE

"Continents and their names" is an intriguing game, doubly so with our newly acquired chalk globe.

"The largest name belongs to the smallest continent," laughed Gilbert Smith. "The littlest name belongs to the largest continent," announced Gary Campbell, "so we are even!"

DRESSED-UP LEAVES IN THIRD AND FOURTH ROOM

Polka-dotted, plaid, calico and striped leaves, in patterns borrowed from gay dresses and shirts are flurrying about in the third and fourth grade room. The aim is to make their art work like they feel and see rather than exactly the way other people feel it should be.

Next week our artists will experiment with one-color harmony. What can be done with only one dominant color, and its shades and tints complementing? We shall see.

KAREN PRESTON SHARES 8TH BIRTHDAY CAKE WITH CLASS

Eight candles twinkled in the darkened third and fourth grade room on Thursday, Sept. 25. Eight candles were blown out and 21 slices of cake were cut for her friends by our birthday girl, Karen Preston. Punch and ice cream, too were served to the tune of "Happy Birthday". Karen then chose Bonnie Marshall, another September Miss, to lead the birthday march with her.

A showing of "Chow Chow Sen", a film strip, completed the fun.

HAD PICTURES TAKEN

Everyone was dressed up Thursday, Sept. 25. Mr. Glunz came and took everyone's picture.

Do you know what he would do when he wanted us to laugh? He would tickle your nose with a piece of string!

by Ann Emerson and Dixie Rosenberry

ANOTHER BIRTHDAY

Carma Lewis gave a birthday party for the fifth and sixth grades Monday afternoon. We had cake and ice cream. Carma was eleven years old.

Vahrenwalds See Carlsbad Caverns

By Mrs. Virginia Babcock
Phone 1209

HOLLAND—Mr. and Mrs. Emil Vahrenwald accompanied by their daughter Alfreda arrived home Tuesday after a week's trip to Reno, the Boulder Dam, Painted Desert, Petrified Forest and Carlsbad Caverns. At the Caverns they were among 362 people on the tour and lunched 750 feet underground.

A double birthday party was held Sept. 17 by the Holland Birthday club at the home of Mrs. Ada Owings. The honored guests were Mrs. Alviene Kaufman and Mrs. Ada Owings.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe Painter and daughter of Anchorage, Alaska, were here visiting her brother Floyd Owings and his family recently.

Mr. and Mrs. Al Erickson spent four days visiting with his sister and family, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Mayfield. Al was a '48 graduate of Kerby Union high school. In the armed forces and stationed at Yakima, Wash., he recently graduated from the Oxford Training School at Ft. Bliss, Texas.

Jacky Sanders was here recently visiting his brother and family, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Jordan. Jacky lives at Brookings.

NEW RIDING CLUB ORGANIZING IN VALLEY

A group of riding enthusiasts met for a harvest dinner at the home of Ethel Banta last Saturday to organize a new riding club.

Any person over the age of 14 who owns his own saddle horse and who would like to belong to a club devoted to frequent rides, outdoor meals, drills and the promotion of better horsemanship will be welcome to join, according to a spokesman for the group.

There will be a get-together and outdoor dinner at the home of Arta Freitas, on Holland Road, at 11 a.m. Saturday for the purpose of choosing a name for the club.

Here from Los Angeles

Ed Weber of Los Angeles has been visiting his brother Al Weber.

ONE-MAN POWER SAW for the FARM

CORDWOOD • POSTS • TREE MAINTENANCE • PULP and SAWMILL TIMBER • CONSTRUCTION

Here's the saw that's designed to lessen work and raise income on the farm. You can take it anywhere—up hill and across swampy land if necessary—because it weighs less than 25 pounds. And cut anything—heavy timber, limbs, hardwood, softwood, frozen wood—because it has a full 3 horsepower.

Many other features too make the McCulloch 3-25 tops on any farm: automatic clutch, built-in chain oiler, recoil starter, and full-power operation at any angle.

HINTS for the Handyman

NO. 8 ONE-DROP OIL CAN

If your oilcan delivers too much oil for single applications, clean the end of the spout and cover the opening with a drop of fingernail polish. Let the polish dry and make a small hole through it with the point of a pin. Then you easily can force the oil out, one drop at a time.
