Valley Projects Related To Farm Bureau Members

Nineteen persons watched slides of Soil Conservation projects in the Valley at the November 13 meeting of the Farm Bureau which met in the library of the high school.

James Broeffle, just recently discharged from the service, also showed colored slides. His were of the area in Korea where he was stationed and he gave a few side-lights on the people, country and military.

Mel Rigdon, as speaker of the evening, showed slides and explained a number of projects and practices underway in the Valley with the assistance of the technicians and equipment of the Soil Conservation District.

Legislative Chairman Mrs. Effie Smith explained the associated women's stand backing the proposed changes at the McLaren State Training School for Boys.

During an open discussion of cattle finishing, brand inspection and transportation permits, it was decided to have the state brand inspector at the next meeting, if possible, to give more complete information to farmers of this area.

SHOW REVUE

SATURDAY

The spectacular thrills, chills and excitement of the rodeo ring are brought to the screen in vivid Technicolor in "Bronco Buster", the story of the rodeo ring and the daredevils who make this dangerous sport their profession. The picture stars John Lund and Scott Brady as feuding rodeo stars who compete for national honors as well as for Joyce Holden.

SUNDAY and MONDAY

A big campus musical comedy, complete with new songs, dances, zany co-eds and six of Warner Bros.' top stars are featured in "She's Working Her Way Through College." Such stellar stars as Virginia Mayo, Ronald Reagan, Gene Nelson, Don DeFore, Phyllis Thaxter and Patricia Wymore can be seen in this musical-comedy.

TUESDAY and WEDNESDAY

Photographed in color by Warnercolor in the hitherto untracked territory around Kanab, Utah, "The Lion and the Horse" brings Steve Cochran as the star of the picture, with nine-year-old Sherry Jackson in one of the featured roles.

Also showing in "Sunny Side of the Street," a musical in Super-color. Nine songs from the all-time parade of hits and such name stars as Frankie Laine, Billy Daniels, Terry Moore, Toni Ard and many more can be heard and seen in this new musical.

THURSDAY and FRIDAY

Handsome, outdoor-adventure drama that has all the prescribed action ingredients can be seen in "The Blazing Forest." Technicolor photography, excellent performances and a good story will meet the approval of movie fans.

Square Dancers Meet Tonight

Mrs. Helen Bottel
(Leave News at O'Brien Store)

O'BRIEN—Square dancers and those who wish to learn are invited to the O'Brien school tonight, Friday, November 21, at 8 p.m. Bob Nunemaker, chairman of the Shamrock club, O'Brien Square Dance group, announces a special session on this date in order to form the nucleus for their winter "hoedowns." Dancing is planned until midnight, with refreshments to end the evening. Everyone is asked to bring either sandwiches or dessert.

The O'Brien HEU will meet Wednesday, Nov. 26 at Mrs. Melba McDonald's home near Elk Creek. Textile painting is the subject of the all-day meeting, which begins at 10 and ends at 3. Members and friends are asked to bring potluck. Mrs. McDonald and your correspondent are instructors.

Everyone should bring pencils and paper and painting equipment if obtainable.

Mr. and Mrs. Cecil Wagy returned recently from a trip to Oakland, San Francisco, Vallejo and Santa Rosa, where they visited friends and relatives. One of the highlights of their visit was a day at the races at Tanforan where they won—and lost.

Visiting Mr. and Mrs. Russell Bechtel of Siskiyou Mountain Camp is Mrs. Bechtel's mother, Mrs. A. J. Gatzka of Yacolt, Wash.

Word reaches here that Mrs. Katie Blanchard, formerly of O'Brien, has been seriously injured in an automobile accident at Lakeview, Ore.

Houseguest of your reporter this week is Mrs. Charlotte Blesh of Gardenville, Nev.

CALIFORNIA MEN IN COLLISION

A car carrying three Yreka, Cal. men collided Thursday night, Nov. 13, with a truck as they were heading south below the state line at about 8 p.m.

The trio was brought into Cave Junction by Valley Ambulance as one man was believed to be injured but later recovered without medical care.

Abner Castleberry and Laurence Cushing made the ambulance run.

Son Born

Mr. and Mrs. Tom H. Barnes of Kerby, are the parents of a son born Thursday, Nov. 13, in the Josephine General hospital, weighing nine pounds.
