View Trees of Mystery

Miss Charlotte Easton of Redmond, and Mrs. Mat Anderson of Klamath Falls spent Sunday with the Ed C. Abbeys. The entire group drove down to see the Trees of Mystery in the afternoon.

Have 35th Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Ed "Butch" Hollingshead marked their 35th wedding anniversary in a quiet evening at home Monday, Nov. 17.

Party Given at Elk Creek Lodge

Mr. and Mrs. George Ingle and Mr. and Mrs. Curly Robinson are giving a party at the Elk Creek Lodge tomorrow night (Saturday) at 8. All their friends are invited. The lodge is managed by J. M. Hovanski.

Crescent City Visitors

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mellow, Jr., of Crescent City, were weekend visitors at the home of his parents, the Frank Mellow, Sr. Visiting on Sunday were Mr. and Mrs. Perry Brewer, also from Crescent City.

HEU Slates Sale And Gift Exchange

A "white elephant" sale and gift exchange are planned for the next meeting of the Home Extension Unit December 9, at the home of Vanda Nealey, five miles out the Caves Hiway.

A preliminary demonstration on textile painting, given by Virginia Steimer and Margaret Meredith featured the November 12 meeting of the club. All-day meetings on textile painting followed on November 19 and 20 at the home of Clara Basham.

A limit of 50 cents was set for the gift exchange, and members were reminded by Gladys England of the 4-H Achievement program tonight (Friday) at the Illinois Valley High School.

Weekend With McAbees

After a visit with the Harold McAbees in Eugene over the weekend, Mrs. Dick Pinkerton reports both parents and husky new son doing well and that young Kyle as yet does not resemble either parent, but has black hair and blue eyes.

IN HOSPITAL

Clinton Freitas of Cave Junction has been in the Portland Veterans hospital for three weeks after having surgery performed on a leg. He will be there for several months. A previous woods accident necessitated the surgery.
