Armistice Day Banquet Draws Large Crowd

Fifteen past presidents of the American Legion Post and Auxiliary of Cave Junction were among the large crowd at the Armistice Day banquet in the Legion Hall Nov. 11.

Following the prayer offered by Chaplain Harry Hartwell, President of the Auxiliary Irene McCasland and District Four vice-commander Les Henry were introduced to the group.

A turkey dinner was served from flower-decorated tables. Affording many laughs were the stories told by each World War I Legionaire when asked where he was stationed when the armistice was signed.

Past presidents of the Auxiliary introduced included Hazel Henry, Evelyn Parmalee, Ellen Hartwell, Lida Miller, Marie White, Millie Trefthen, and Amy Hussey. Past commanders of the Post included Ken Deaton, Ole Nassan, Harry Hartwell, George Bonner, Les Henry, Blake Miller, Elwood Hussey and George Thrasher.

Ed Hollingshead was introduced as past commander of Post No. 269, Arcadia, Nebr.

Commander Tom White in his speech restated the obligations of members of both Legion and Auxiliary to the community, state and nation.

Les Henry gave the group details of the membership drive.

Rebekahs Postpone Nov. 23 Dinner

The Rebekah dinner scheduled for this Sunday, Nov. 23, at the Todelope cafe, has been indefinitely postponed, Noble Grand Alice Vahrenwald announced this week.

Twenty four members and two visitors were present at the Nov. 12 meeting of Marguerite Rebekah lodge, including ten past noble grands. Members were reminded of the District Convention tomorrow (Saturday) in Ashland. A delegation from the local organization will be in attendance.

Next meeting of the lodge will be November 26 in Kerby at the IOOF hall.

OES Reception Honors Representative J. Kellert

Friendship night and a reception for Joy Kellert, grand representative to New Mexico, featured the regular meeting of Western Star Chapter No. 64, Tuesday, Nov. 18.

Mrs. Kellert's report of her trip included telling of the "grand honors" extended to her while there.

Among the guests of the evening were Margaret Barnes, past grand matron; Carlotta Wiseman, grand associate conductress; Melvina Little, matron of Reames Chapter, Medford; Juanita Butler, matron of Josephine chapter, Grants Pass; and Warren Butler, patron of Josephine Chapter.

Members and visitors were served refreshments in the dining room during a "social hour". Music was provided by Herb Drews on the accordion.

Women's Club Plans Potluck This Sunday

A potluck supper this Sunday for their families and a noon potluck lunch Dec. 12 are scheduled for the O'Brien Women's club, members were told at their regular meeting November 14.

Representatives from the National Tuberculosis Assn, Miss Hall, and Mrs. Markham, showed the group of 30 a film produced by the Walt Disney studios stressing the need for vaccination.

Members and their families and friends will gather at the clubhouse this Sunday, Nov. 23 for a potluck supper at 7 p.m.

Members will share a potluck lunch starting at noon Dec. 12 at the annual Christmas party under the chairmanship of Blanche Lackey. A limit of $1 was placed on the gift exchange for that event.

Nearly $200 was taken in on the Turkey Festival, it was reported.
