

Mae Bowerman Elected Job's Daughters Queen

Mae Bowerman, newly-elected honored queen of Job's Daughters, Bethel No. 36, and her officers will take office in installation ceremonies Dec. 8.

Other officers elected at the regular meeting Monday, Nov. 17, were Christine Duncan, senior princess; Donna Zimmerman, junior princess; Jackie Strohkirch, guide; and Merrill Simington, marshal.

Under escort and honors, Ruth Masters, worthy matron of Western Star Chapter No. 64, and past associate guardian, Harold Bowerman, "Papa Job", were introduced and welcomed to the group. Bowerman is a member of the examining committee of the Masonic Grand Lodge of Oregon.

Pie sales in Selma and in Cave Junction will be held tomorrow (Saturday) at the Selma store beginning at 9 a.m. with Claire Cooper in charge, and the Illinois Valley Cleaners at 10 a.m. with Christine Duncan in charge. Smog caused the postponement of the last scheduled pie sale.

"Go To Church" day for Job's Daughters will be Sunday, Nov. 23. All officers were especially urged to attend.

A slumber party is planned for Nov. 28 with Guardian Edna Cooper in charge. Past Guardian Carolyn Covington is to be invited. The girls planning to go to the first show are asked to leave the sleeping paraphernalia at the hall before 7 p.m.

Initiation will be held Dec. 1. All officers are requested to be present. Secret Dads names were chosen for the ensuing year.

Job's Daughters meet the first and third Mondays of each month.

BOOK WEEK TO TEACH RESPECT, CARE OF BOOKS

November 15-22 is Book Week in the first and second grade room. We are going to be kind to our books and put covers on all of the new books. Every day this week we are going to have some book reports. Almost all of the boys and girls have libraries at home.

PRIMARY ROOM HAD MOST PERFECT ATTENDANCE

The Primary room not only won the PTA Thanksgiving banquet, but they had the most people with a perfect attendance record for the first nine weeks. These students have been neither tardy nor absent during this period:

First and Second Grades—Don Bailey, Von Bailey, Kathleen Breckenridge, Donald Dunagan, Peter Hines, Joyce Moore and Larry Shaw.

Third and Fourth—Daniel Hovanski and Gilbert Smith.

Fifth and Sixth—Carma Lewis, Patricia George and Barbara Shaw.

RAINY OPEN HOUSE

When open house day came it rained. Even so, Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Morton came to visit us and see our work. The ladies had coffee and we had cookies. We took home our papers that we had saved in our files these nine weeks.

3RD AND 4TH HAVE TEA FOR PARENTS

The third and fourth grades entertained their parents at a tea last Thursday, in honor of Education Week. There was a display of classroom texts. The new reading books were a source of keen interest to the visitors. Jeanne Loganbill and Pamela Hunt, the only fourth grade girls, poured tea. Guests were, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bottel, Mrs. Carl Marshall and Mrs. William Hunter. All the children enjoyed cookies and candy.
