Children's Night Features Movies

by Mrs Helen Bittel
(Leave News at O'Brien Store)

O'BRIEN—Children's Night at the O'Brien Grade School is planned for Friday, December 5 at 7 p.m., with selected movies as the main attraction. John Grubb and Roy Kiser, in charge of arrangements, have brought together a program which any child from two to 60 will recognize as ideal. Three cartoons, two comedies, two travelogues, and one adventure feature. These will be shown in the third and fourth grade room on the school's sound projector. Parents are cordially invited.

There will be no admittance charge, but those who wish may contribute a small amount in order to start a fund for further movies.

This is the first of a monthly series of childrens entertainments sponsored by the O'Brien PTA. With not only films, but dancing games and other surprises in store for the future. Planned for the first Friday in each month, January must necessarily be dark, as the date falls during Christmas vacation.

What with dances, carnivals, banquets, movies and open house teas, it would seem that O'Brien School has become the center of community activity. We understand the Friday night Square Dance was a bang-up success with almost more people than space and everyone sad when the last waltz shoed them home. Members of the Shamrock Club voted on a weekly Friday night dance with the second planned for November 28 at 8 p.m.

Valley folk dancers are seldom idle as the Stampeders, O'Brien Womens' Club group hold weekly Wednesday night practice sessions and square and round dances every other Saturday. Their next two get-togethers are on December 3 and 6.

Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Perez and their two small children are new residents of O'Brien. Originally from Cave Junction, they have bought a home in this district.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wieting left Wednesday night for Portland, where they will spend Thanksgiving with Mrs. Wieting's mother and step-father, Mr. and Mrs. Blaine Turner.

Mrs. Pearl Johnson of Idyllwild is expected home from the hospital this week. She was seriously injured in an automobile accident at Kerby nearly a month ago.

Long-Time Selma Resident Dies

Funeral services for Laura Elizabeth Hogue, 65, of Selma, were held Wednesday, Nov. 23 at the chapel of the L. B. Hall Funeral Home. Interment followed in Hillcrest Memorial park. She died in Josephine General hospital, Sunday, Nov. 23.

Mrs. Hogue came to Selma in 1904 as the bride of William A. Hogue, who survives her.

She is also survived by an aunt, Mrs. Ralph Scott, of Elk Grove, Calif; and three nephews living in Weed, Calif.

Independent Hockey Team Wins, Ties and Loses

A win, a tie and a loss resulted for the Southwestern Oregon Independents field hockey team in the northwest conference Nov. 15 and 16 in Eugene.

Miss Hazel Peterson and Mrs. Gloria LeVan, physical education instructors at IVHS and Kerby Grade school, respectively, were members of the team that won 3-2 over University of Oregon and tied 2-2 with Oregon State College.

Their defeat was at the hands of a Vancouver, British Columbia team, 3-0.

The Independents team was made up of teachers from here, Roseburg, Grants Pass, Ashland and Eugene.

Mr. and Mrs. Curly Robinson and Mr. and Mrs. George Ingle entertained about 40 guests at a private party last Saturday night at Elk Creek Lodge.

Orchids to O'Brien PTA ladies who with only one committed meeting, no cooking facilities and limited space turned out one of the best and biggest turkey banquets ever held in this area. It amazes us to no end how those women met, discussed everything from the high price of pot roasts to the low boiling point of dinner-minded husbands and yet miraculously turned out such well grooved plans that not one cog slipped in the machinery of feeding the multitude that depended on the school last Thursday.
